41 Case No.: 22-14422-nmc

OBJECTION OF CREDITOR WHITE WINSTON SELECT ASSET FUNDS, LLC TO APPROVAL OF PROPOSED FINAL DIP ORDER

Creditor White Winston Select Asset Funds, LLC (“WW”), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files this objection to the form of the proposed Final DIP order (the “Proposed Order”) [ECF No.265] and respectfully submits the following:

I. INTRODUCTION

1. The parties have no disputes about the terms of financing to be provided to the Debtor. This dispute narrowly focuses instead largely on the prepetition claims of Empery Tax Efficient, L.P.’s (“Empery”) and its fellow securityholders.¹ Unfortunately, although Empery and the Debtor previously agreed to eliminate limitations on WW’s right pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §502(a) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3012 to bring a claim objection to the Empery Securityholders’ prepetition claims (defined in the Proposed Order as a “Challenge”), the Debtor and Empery now seek to limit WW’s right to bring such a “Challenge.” Empery and the Debtor additionally seek to change their agreement that the Loan Documents are consistent with the Term Sheet, as represented to the Court by the Debtor at the February 9, 2023 hearing (the “Hearing”).² WW objects to this bait and switch, and requests that the Court deny approval and entry of the Proposed Order. If the Court intends to enter any final DIP order at all, then WW requests that the Court approve the form of final DIP Order attached as Exhibit A (redlined to the proposed order submitted by the Debtor), which, unlike the Proposed Order, reflects what the Court decided at the Hearing, what the parties agreed to, and applicable law.

II. REPRESENTATIONS AT THE HEARING

2. As a matter of law, 11 U.S.C. §502(a) permits any party in interest to object to allowance of a claim. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3012(a) authorizes the Court to determine the amount of ¹ Except as otherwise indicated, capitalized terms have the meanings ascribed to them in the Proposed Order and the Opposition. The Term Sheet and Proposed Order provide for indemnification of Empery's attorney's fees and costs, other than with respect to litigation with WW and Mr. Drexler. The pending dispute principally concerns Empery's prepetition claim. Accordingly, WW intends to object to any attempt by Empery to seek or obtain indemnification of its attorney's fees and costs related to this dispute. Indeed, WW fears those fees, together with the accruing administrative expenses, have made reorganization much more difficult and perhaps unattainable. WW fears the administrative costs, together with the alleged rights to indemnification that Empery intends to assert, have been staggering.

1 a secured claim “[o]n request of a party in interest.” WW is a creditor³ and equity security holder
 2 of the Debtor and thus is a “party in interest.” See, 11 U.S.C. §1109(b); In re Tower Park
 3 Properties, LLC, 803 F.3d 450, 457 (9th Cir. 2015) (“a party in interest is one who has a legally
 4 protected interest that could be affected by a bankruptcy proceeding”); 4 Collier on Bankruptcy P 5 502.02 (16th 2022) (“in the context of a chapter 11 case in particular, the term ‘party in interest’ 6 expressly includes. . . a creditor [and] an equity security holder. . . .”).

7 3. As relevant here, a core premise of the settlement and “a key part of the [Empery]
 8 financing”⁴ was that WW intends to assert an objection to Empery’s prepetition claim (a 9 “Challenge”) “as averred in its prior opposition [ECF No. 186] (the “Opposition”).⁵ Neither 10 Empery nor the Debtor challenged this representation. Declaration of Todd M. Enright (“Enright 11 Dec.”) at ¶3.

12 4. Prior iterations of the Term Sheet purported to eliminate WW’s statutory right to 13 assert a claim objection. See generally, Opposition, ¶2 at 3.⁶ Later, Empery and the Debtor agreed
 14 to eliminate this limitation on WW’s rights, and made clear that WW’s right to file a claim 15 objection to the Empery Securityholders’ prepetition claims – a/k/a, a “Challenge” – was not 16 limited.⁷ Indeed, the Committee also was granted the right to assert a Challenge, but unlike WW’s
 17 right to do so, the Committee’s right is not limited.⁸ This newly found distinction between WW’s 18 Challenge and the Committee’s Challenge appears nowhere. The Debtor never drew any 19

20 ³ The definition of claim in the Bankruptcy Code is broad. WW’s claim was in the fair contemplation of the parties prior to bankruptcy. Cal. Dep’t of Health Servs. v. Jensen (In re Jensen), 995 F.2d 925, 929 (9th Cir. 1993).

21 ⁴ Ex. A, at 8, line18 – 21.

22 ⁵ See Ex. A, at 31, lines 13 – 16. Counsel for WW stated that “[e]ffectively, if a claim objection is filed – and I can assure the Court we intend to file one to the entirety of the claim on the three grounds we outlined on our opposition – essentially nothing happens with respect to the prepetition claim, essentially the status quo is preserved.” Ex. A, at 31, lines 13 – 16.

24 ⁶ “Only the Committee may challenge the Empery Securityholders’ claims – all other parties, including WW, are not provided equivalent rights to challenge anything.”

25 ⁷ Id. at 10:13-25. (Debtor represents that “the purpose of that language is to make clear that if [WW] objects . . . the purpose of this language from the debtor’s perspective is to preserve the parties’ rights, that [absent further court order or withdrawal of the objection] the parties would be in front of you and the Court would resolve. . . all those matters, which I think, Your Honor, frankly, is the law.”).

27 ⁸ See, e.g., Ex. A, at 8:18-21 (“So, Your Honor, so the -- a key part of the financing that’s proposed is the ability of the Committee, as well as White Winston, to propose or to file challenges to that financing.”).

1 distinctions between the scope of a Challenge by the Committee and a Challenge by WW at the 2 Hearing. At most and at the Hearing, Debtor's counsel speculated on whether WW would object
 3 to the entirety of the Empery Noteholders' prepetition claims or only to parts of it, but never 4 expressed any limitation existed on WW's rights or that WW agreed to limit its rights.⁹ Enright
 5 Dec. at ¶4.

6 III. THE PROPOSED ORDER

7 5. The Proposed Order, contrary to the representations made to the Court at the 8 Hearing, purports to limit the scope of any Challenge by WW to the Empery Securityholders' 9 prepetition claims. The Proposed Order provides, at ¶ 4, that "White Winston shall have until 10 March 9, 2023 (such period, "White Winston Challenge Period," and together with the 11 Committee Challenge Period, the "Challenge Periods") to investigate, challenge and otherwise 12 object to the allowance of the Allowed Claim (other than challenges and objections based upon 13 the Debtor's or the Estate's claims)."¹⁰

14 6. WW objects to the highlighted parenthetical language, which should be deleted. As 15 noted above, WW never agreed to any limitation whatsoever on its right to assert a Challenge and 16 has rejected every attempt by Empery and the Debtor to limit WW's right to a Challenge. To the 17 extent the ambiguous terms ("the Debtor's or the Estate's claims") are meant to limit WW to 18 Challenges based solely on claims for affirmative relief WW could assert directly against Empery, 19 without obtaining derivative standing to do so, such a limitation is absurd. WW never had direct 20 dealings with Empery prior to Empery's investment into the Debtor and never believed its 21 Challenge would have anything to do with any such claims. Enright Dec. at ¶5

22 7. In short, a claim objection is different from an affirmative claim for relief. WW
 23 has a statutory right to assert a claim objection, regardless of its rights to assert an affirmative 24 claim for relief. See, Hartford Underwriters Ins. Co. v. Union Planters Bank, N.A., 530 U.S. 1, 6

 26 ⁹ Id. at 9:16.
 27

28 ¹⁰ Emphasis supplied. This newly proposed limitation is ambiguous. Nowhere does the Proposed Order define what are "the Debtor's or the Estate's claims." Despite repeated requests by WW, the Debtor and Empery refuse to define what this limitation would prohibit WW from filing.

1 (2000) (a party may lack standing to assert a claim where the bankruptcy code names the party
 2 granted the right to invoke its provisions); cf. 11 U.S.C. §502(a), Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3012 (any party
 3 in interest may file a claim objection). WW withdrew its Opposition solely based upon the 4 agreement with the Debtor that it could bring a Challenge without limitation, with the 5 consequences as read into the record at the Hearing. Enright Dec. at ¶5. Empery has the right to 6 defend against any such Challenge (Proposed DIP Order, at ¶4, last sentence), but no right to 7 prevent WW from filing any Challenge.¹¹ Enright Dec. at ¶5.

8. The Debtor and Empery may argue that they intend to give the Committee exclusive 9 derivative standing to bring claims against Empery, and that should remedy WW's objection. But 10 first, standing to assert claims is irrelevant to WW's statutory right to assert a Challenge. Even 11 assuming arguendo that WW lacks standing to file an adversary proceeding to subordinate or 12 recharacterize the Empery Securityholders' prepetition claims, that has nothing to do with and is 13 a non sequitur to whether WW can file a separate objection to the prepetition claims. Second, 14 even if true, granting the Committee derivative standing to assert claims against Empery does not 15 obviate the Debtor's and Empery's agreements with WW that any Challenge by WW would not 16 be subject to any such limitation. Fundamentally, the Debtor and Empery waived their rights to 17 limit WW's right to file a claim objection for any reason, even if their newly asserted argument
 18 that granting the Committee derivative standing matters. Third, the Committee acquiesced to a 19 $50,000 spending limit for any matters related to any Challenge. Enright Dec. at ¶6. This funding 20 restriction makes any rights granted to the Committee illusory, since if past is prologue then 21 $50,000 likely is at most a rounding error in the costs associated with litigation with the Empery 22 Securityholders.

23. Additionally, although the Bankruptcy Code imposes no limit on the timing of the 24 filing of a Challenge, WW previously noted Empery's request, but never agreed, to limit its right
 25 to file a Challenge only to March 9, 2023.¹² WW has requested a two-week extension of time, due 26

¹¹ Ex. A, 33:8-10 (WW has "been transparent in [its] objection as to what [it thinks] the grounds are. And [WW] and Empery hopefully will have a full and fair opportunity to litigate those issues.").

¹² Ex. A, at 12, lines 19 – 23 ("Similarly, we may be back in front of you with respect to the timing of March 9th.

1 in part to the passage of almost three weeks since the Hearing to the submission of a proposed
 2 Final DIP Order. Empery refused any such request or any extension at all. As Empery has reneged
 3 on its agreements regarding the Final DIP Order, WW submits it should have at least as much time
 4 as the Committee has been granted to April 10, 2023, to file its Challenge and to facilitate greater 5 coordination between WW and the Committee. WW has commenced an investigation of Empery 6 and the Committee has requested an opportunity to participate in any Rule 2004 examinations that 7 WW conducts. WW submits that allowing WW to have as much time as the Committee to file 8 any Challenge facilitates the intended collaboration between WW and the Committee and 9 facilitates the Court's case management by coordinating all hearings regarding such Challenges.

10. Finally, WW is particularly concerned that the Term Sheet requires the Final DIP
 11 Order to contain undisclosed stipulations regarding "the amount and priority of the secured 12 indebtedness under the Prepetition Notes." Accordingly, the parties agreed at the Hearing that the 13 "DIP documents . . . will be consistent" with those representations [made at the Hearing]¹³ and 14 that "these representations and agreements will be incorporated into the final order approving DIP 15 financing. . . ."¹⁴ Nowhere does the Proposed Order provide that, as promised, the DIP documents 16 are consistent with the representations read into the record at the Hearing. Enright Dec. at ¶8.

11. The Proposed Order instead provides at ¶38 only that it is Empery's and the 12 Debtor's "intent" that the [Proposed Order] and the Loan Documents be read together and 13 consistent with one another. . . . The "intent" of the Debtor and Empery regarding the construction 14 of the Loan Documents with one another is irrelevant. The Final DIP Order should be 15 unambiguous that it authorizes only Loan Documents consistent with the Term Sheet and the 16 representations made at the Hearing, regardless of the parties' "intent" about the irrelevant mutual 17 reading of the various Loan Documents. The Final DIP Order should be clear that the agreed 18 consequences to the Empery Securityholders arising from any Challenge apply unconditionally.

25 We're probably going to need more time than that. If we can't get it by agreement, we expect we'll be back in front 26 of you on shortened notice seeking more timing than March 9th.").

27 ¹³ Ex. A, 11:9-10.

¹⁴ Id. at 11:9-13.

1 12. Similarly, WW objects to the language in paragraph 38 of the Proposed Order that 2 has the Court approving the Loan Documents regardless of any inconsistency. Although the 3 Debtor insists the Loan Documents are consistent with the Term Sheet, the Debtor and Empery
 4 nevertheless refuse to so represent to the Court. The Debtor and Empery refuse to accept the risk
 5 they agreed to assume that there is an inconsistency by refusing to condition the Court's approval
 6 of Loan Documents only to the extent they are consistent with those representations. WW
 7 acquiesced to the representations made at the Hearing, particularly with respect to the preservation 8 of its right to assert a Challenge and the consequences that flow from the filing of a Challenge, and 9 not to something else that may suddenly appear in the Loan Documents. WW bargained for the 10 risk of inconsistency being assumed by the Debtor and Empery, and not by the estate and its 11 creditors. Enright Dec. at ¶9.

12 IV. CONCLUSION

13 13. As WW argued in the Opposition, (at ¶3), Empery's entire DIP financing proposal
 14 is a pretext by which Empery seeks to legitimize the Empery Securityholders' illegitimate 15 prepetition claims. At bottom, WW is the only party with the means and incentive to file a 16 Challenge to that claim. Entering the Proposed Order, which effectively eliminates the Debtor 17 (which has abjectly abdicated its rights to Empery) and the Committee (which is limited to $50,000 18 to fight Empery), means only WW is left to file a Challenge. It is a preposterous and absurd result 19 to suggest that WW, too, should be denied or limited in (or ever agreed to be denied or limited in) 20 the right to assert a Challenge, thereby leaving the Empery Securityholders' prepetition claims 21 without any challenge at all. Enright Dec. at ¶10. Whatever else was intended, it was not that.
 22 Thus, WW objects to entry of the Proposed Order. WW reserves its rights, including to seek the 23 appointment of a chapter 11 trustee pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1104 and to terminate the Debtor's 24 exclusive periods under 11 U.S.C. § 1121. Enright Dec. at ¶11.

1 WHEREFORE, WW prays the Court sustain this Objection and decline to enter the 2 Proposed Order, alternatively, authorize and enter at most the form of order attached as Exhibit A 3 instead, and further grant WW such other and further relief to which it may be entitled.

 22 Rules 2002, 4001, 6004, and 9014, and Local Rule 4001. Venue of the Chapter 11 Case and the 23 Motion in this District is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

24 C. Notice. Notice of the First Interim Hearing and the relief requested in the Motion 25 was provided by the Debtor by electronic mail, overnight courier, hand delivery or electronic

27 ³ To the extent that the Court stated findings of fact and conclusions of law on the record at 28 the Second Interim Hearing, such findings and conclusions are incorporated herein by reference in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 52, made applicable pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014.

1 delivery through the Bankruptcy Court's CM/ECF system, on January 3, 2023, to: (i) the Office of 2 the United States Trustee for the District of Nevada ("U.S. Trustee"), (ii) the Debtor's 20 largest 3 non-insider unsecured creditors, (iii) the Lender and counsel to the Lender, (iv) all other parties
 4 known by the Debtor to assert liens or security interests in the assets of the Debtor, and (v) all other 5 parties entitled to notice under Bankruptcy Rule 2002. Notice of the Second Interim Hearing was 6 provided by the Bankruptcy Court on the record in open court at the First Interim Hearing and also 7 on the written record [See ECF No. 66]. Notice of the Final Hearing was provided by the 8 Bankruptcy Court on the record in open court at the Second Interim Hearing and also on the written 9 record [See ECF Nos. 105 & 146]. Under all of the circumstances, such notice of the Motion, the 10 relief requested therein, the Interim Hearings, and Final Hearing has complied with Bankruptcy 11 Rule 4001(b), (c) and (d) and the Local Rules.

12 D. Debtor's Need for DIP Financing. Based upon pleadings and papers filed with, 13 and evidence submitted to, this Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Motion, and the record in 14 the Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor does not have sufficient available sources of working capital and 15 financing to carry on the operation of its business and affairs without the DIP Financing and 16 authorized use of all cash, negotiable instruments, documents of title, securities, deposit accounts, 17 or other cash equivalents whenever or wherever acquired in which the Debtor and an entity other 18 than the Debtor has an interest, whether existing before or after the commencement of the Chapter 19 11 Case and inclusive of cash collateral as defined in Section 363 ("Cash Collateral"). As a result 20 of the Debtor's financial condition, the use of Cash Collateral alone will be insufficient to meet the 21 Debtor's immediate postpetition liquidity needs. The Debtor's ability to maintain business 22 relationships with its suppliers and customers, pay for human resources, purchase materials and 23 otherwise finance its operations is essential to the Debtor's continued viability. The Debtor's 24 ability to finance its operations and its Chapter 11 Case is essential to preserving the going concern 25 value of the Debtor's business and ultimately maximizing the value of the Estate for the benefit of 26 all stakeholders, and for these reasons and others, the approval of the DIP Financing is in the best 27 interests of the Debtor, the Estate, and its creditors.

28 E. Budget for Necessary DIP Financing. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a revised

1 13-week cash flow forecast setting forth all projected cash receipts and cash disbursements (by line
 2 item) for a 13-week period beginning in the week commencing January 30, 2023 and for a twelve 3 (12) month period beginning in January 2023 (the “Budget”). The Budget may be modified or 4 supplemented from time to time by additional budgets (covering any time period covered by a prior 5 budget or covering additional time periods) prepared by the Debtor and consented to in writing by 6 the Lender, without subsequent notice to or order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtor will deliver 7 a copy of the Budget to the Committee and Prestige Capital Finance, LLC’s (“Prestige”). The 8 Budget is an integral part of this Final Order and has been relied upon by the Lender in consenting 9 to this Final Order and to provide the DIP Financing. The Budget includes and contains the 10 Debtor’s best current estimate of all operational receipts, and the Budget accounts for operational 11 disbursements, fees, costs and other expenses that were anticipated to be payable, incurred and/or 12 accrued by the Debtor during the period covered by the Budget to be timely paid in the ordinary 13 course of business to the extent allowed and permitted to be paid by an order of this Bankruptcy
 14 Court or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code. Funding of the Budget is expected to allow the Debtor 15 to operate in the Chapter 11 Case and pay postpetition administrative expenses in the ordinary 16 course of business to the extent allowed and permitted to be paid by the Bankruptcy Court order or 17 pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, subject to the terms of this Final Order.

18 F. Financing under Section 364. Based on the pleadings and papers filed with, and 19 evidence submitted to, this Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Motion, and the record in the 20 Chapter 11 Case, the Debtor is unable to obtain sufficient financing from a source acceptable to 21 Debtor in its business judgment by means of: (i) unsecured credit allowable as an administrative 22 expense under Sections 364(b) and 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; or (ii) secured credit under 23 Sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), 364(c)(3) and 364(d) for the purposes set forth in the Term Sheet 24 and the Loan Documents without granting a superpriority priming lien.

25 G. Good Faith Lender and Lending and Good Cause. The Lender agreed to provide 26 postpetition financing secured, subject to the priorities described in Exhibit B hereto, by: (i) 27 continuing, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and properly perfected 28 co-priority senior liens on and security interests in the DIP Collateral (defined below) (collectively,

1 the “DIP Liens”), with the same priority as the Prepetition Secured Parties’ (as defined in the Loan
2 Documents) current prepetition liens on Debtor’s prepetition assets and senior to all other liens
3 existing on and after the Petition Date with the exception of Prestige’s prepetition liens and security 4 interests in its prepetition collateral as provided in the prepetition intercreditor agreement
5 (“Prestige Intercreditor Agreement”) between Prestige, the Debtor and the Prepetition Secured 6 Parties; (ii) superpriority claims under Section 364(c)(1); (iii) automatically perfected liens under 7 Sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), 364(c)(3) and 364(d); and (iii) the other protections set forth in the 8 Motion and the Term Sheet and the Loan Documents, in each case limited only by this Final Order.
9 As of the Final Hearing, the Lender is prepared to advance secured financing to the Debtor in 10 accordance with the Term Sheet and the Loan Documents to the extent provided in this Final Order 11 and the Budget. After considering all of its alternatives, including alternative sources of debtor in 12 possession financing, the Debtor has concluded, in an exercise of its sound business judgment, that 13 the DIP Financing provided by Lender represents the best proposed financing available to the 14 Debtor under Debtor’s circumstances. Based on the pleadings and papers filed with, and evidence 15 submitted to, this Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Motion, and the record in the Chapter
16 Case, the terms and conditions of the DIP Financing are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtor’s 17 exercise of prudent business judgment, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair 18 consideration. Absent granting the relief sought by this Final Order, the Debtor’s business, 19 properties and the Estate will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Accordingly, good cause 20 has been shown that entry of this Final Order is in the best interest of the Debtor and its Estate, 21 employees, creditors, and other parties in interest and that the implementation and consummation 22 of the DIP Financing and authorization of the use of the DIP Collateral (including the Cash 23 Collateral as further provided below) in accordance with this Final Order and the Loan Documents 24 is in the best interests of the Estate and consistent with the Debtor’s fiduciary duties. Based on the 25 pleadings and papers filed with, and evidence submitted to, this Bankruptcy Court in connection 26 with the Motion, and the record in the Chapter 11 Case, (i) the DIP Financing has been negotiated 27 in good faith and at arm’s length among the Debtor and the Lender, and (ii) any credit extended, 28 loans made, and other financial accommodations extended pursuant to this Final Order to the

1 Debtor by the Lender have been extended, issued or made, as the case may be, in “good faith”
 2 within the meaning of Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3 H. Use of Cash Collateral. An immediate and critical need exists for the Debtor to 4 use the Cash Collateral (in addition to the DIP Financing) in accordance with the Budget to continue 5 to operate its business, pay wages, maintain business relationships with members, suppliers and 6 customers, make capital expenditures, generally conduct its business affairs so as to avoid 7 immediate and irreparable harm to the Estate and the value of its assets, and afford the Debtor 8 adequate time to effectively reorganize.

9 I. Final Approval of the Motion. Based upon the Motion, all pleadings and papers 10 filed with and evidence submitted to this Bankruptcy Court in connection with the Motion, and the 11 record made at the Interim Hearings and Final Hearing, all objections being withdrawn, 12 consensually resolved on the record, or overruled by the Bankruptcy Court, the Bankruptcy Court 13 has determined to grant the Motion on a final basis and approve the Debtor’s entry into and 14 performance under the DIP Financing under the Loan Documents, as further provided herein, 15 thereby authorizing postpetition financing of (i) up to $4,500,000 (excluding the Roll-Up amounts 16 (defined below) and the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit) under the DIP Note Facility (as 17 defined in the Loan Documents), (ii) up to $10,000,000 under the DIP Factoring Facility to factor 18 DIP Accounts (as those terms are defined in the Loan Documents), and (iii) up to $1,000,000 under 19 the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit (as defined in the Loan Documents), and related relief, 20 as provided in the Loan Documents and this Final Order.

21 Based on the foregoing, and upon the record made before this Bankruptcy Court at the 22 Interim Hearings and Final Hearing, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

23 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

24 1. Final Approval. The DIP Financing pursuant to the DIP Facilities (as that term is 25 defined in the Loan Documents) is approved on a final basis and the Debtor is authorized to obtain 26 postpetition financing of (i) up to $4,500,000 (excluding the Roll-Up amounts and the DIP 27 Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit) under the DIP Note Facility, (ii) up to $10,000,000 under the 28 DIP Factoring Facility, and (iii) up to $1,000,000 under the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of

1 Credit on a final basis as provided in the Loan Documents and this Final Order.

2 2. Budget. Beginning on January 30, 2023 and continuing until the repayment in full 3 in cash of the obligations under the DIP Facilities, the Debtor shall perform in accordance with the 4 Budget, subject to the following with respect to any Review Period (defined below): (i) the Debtor's 5 actual cash receipts shall not be less than 90% of the projected amounts set forth in the Budget on 6 a cumulative basis; and (ii) the Debtor's actual cash disbursements shall not be greater than 110% 7 of the projected amounts therefor set forth in the Budget on a cumulative basis (such variance, the 8 "Permitted Variances"). During any Review Period occurring prior to March 15, 2023, the DIP
9 Note Purchasers and DIP Factoring Purchasers (as those terms are defined in the Loan Documents)
10 waive all defaults of the Debtor for failing to comply with the Budget, including the Permitted 11 Variances, solely with respect to (i) Total Receipts and (ii) Total COGS Including Shipping (as 12 those terms are defined in the Budget). Debtor shall file with the Bankruptcy Court a final Budget 13 agreed to by the DIP Agent on or before March 15, 2023. Compliance with the Budget shall be 14 reviewed on Monday of every other week on a bi-weekly basis, with such reviews to be conducted 15 on the Monday following each of the second and fourth weeks of the Budget (each, a "Weekly 16 Review Period") and thereafter on a rolling 4-week basis (the "Cumulative Review Period" and 17 together with the Weekly Review Period, the "Review Periods"). Beginning on the second 18 Monday following the Second Interim DIP Order and every other Monday thereafter, the Debtor 19 shall deliver to the DIP Factoring Agent (as defined in the Loan Documents) and the Committee of 20 Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee"), not later than 4:00 p.m. Pacific time on each Monday 21 (commencing with the Monday after the one-week anniversary of the Second Interim DIP Order), 22 a weekly line-by-line variance report (the "Variance Report"), which Variance Report shall 23 compare actual cash receipts and disbursements of the Debtor with corresponding amounts 24 provided for in the Budget on a line-by-line basis for the prior week and the applicable Review 25 Period (or such shorter period as may have elapsed from the Petition Date), including written 26 descriptions in reasonable detail explaining any material positive or negative variances, and 27 otherwise in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the DIP Note Agent (as defined in the 28 Loan Documents).

1 3. Final Approval of the Loan Documents. The Debtor-In-Possession Notes
 2 Purchase and Security Agreement (as subsequently amended and supplemented and executed by 3 the Debtor and the counterparties thereto (“DIP Note Agreement”) and Debtor-In-Possession
 4 Factoring Purchase and Security Agreement (as subsequently amended and supplemented 5 consistent with this Final Order and executed by the Debtor and the counterparties thereto (“DIP
 6 Factoring Agreement,” and collectively with the DIP Note Agreement, and any other documents 7 or agreements, if any, intercreditor agreements, and amendments, schedules, and exhibits to the 8 foregoing delivered or filed pursuant to or in connection with or necessary to implement the DIP 9 Financing, the “Loan Documents”), attached hereto as Exhibit C and Exhibit D, respectively, and 10 all the Lender protections provided therein and herein are approved for all postpetition lending by 11 Lender to Debtor made pursuant to this Final Order. The Debtor is expressly authorized, 12 empowered, and directed to perform all of its direct and indirect obligations under the Loan 13 Documents from and after December 15, 2022 (“Petition Date”), including the execution of such 14 additional documents, instruments and agreements reasonably required or requested by the Lender
 15 to implement the terms or effectuate the purposes of the Loan Documents and this Final Order, 16 except as limited hereby (collectively, the “DIP Obligations”). In furtherance of the foregoing and 17 without further approval of this Bankruptcy Court, the Debtor is authorized, and the automatic stay 18 imposed by Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code is modified to the extent necessary, to perform all 19 acts and to make, execute and deliver all instruments and documents and to pay all reasonable fees 20 (when applicable), that may be reasonably required or necessary for the Debtor’s performance of 21 its obligations under the Loan Documents and this Final Order, and for Lender’s exercise of 22 remedies set forth in the Loan Documents upon a default.

23 4. Approval of the Challenge Periods. The Committee shall have until April 10, 24 2023 (such period, the “Committee Challenge Period”) to investigate and challenge and otherwise 25 object to the allowance of the Allowed Claim (defined below). The Releases (included in this Final 26 Order and which are included in the Loan Documents) are not a defense to a claim objection brought 27 by the Committee during the Committee Challenge Period. Except as may be set forth in an order 28 of this Court, White Winston shall have until March 9April 10, 2023 (such period, “White Winston

1 Challenge Period,” and together with the Committee Challenge Period, the “Challenge Periods”) to investigate, challenge and otherwise object to the allowance of the Allowed Claim ~~other than challenges and objections based upon the Debtor’s or the Estate’s claims~~. If an objection to the Prepetition Secured Parties’ prepetition claim is timely filed during the required Challenge Period in the Bankruptcy Court, then: (i) the Prepetition Secured Parties’ prepetition claim shall not be deemed an “allowed claim” to the extent objected to in such objection absent the Prepetition Collateral Agent (as defined in the Loan Documents) obtaining a further order of the Bankruptcy Court, unless the objection is withdrawn; (ii) the Prepetition Collateral Agent shall not be entitled to the Prepetition Collateral Agent Credit Bid Obligations (as defined in the Loan Documents) unless the Prepetition Collateral Agent obtains a further order of the Bankruptcy Court, unless the objection is withdrawn; (iii) if a sale of Debtor’s assets occurs before such claim objection is resolved, such sale proceeds will be held by the Estate to the extent of the objection unless the Prepetition Collateral Agent obtains a further order of the Bankruptcy Court, unless the objection is withdrawn; and (iv) the Releases (included in this Final Order and which are included in the Loan Documents) are not a defense to such claim objection brought by White Winston. The Prepetition Collateral Agent’s rights to respond on behalf of Prepetition Collateral Agent and the Prepetition Secured Parties to any challenges raised by the Committee or White Winston (or any party) are preserved.

19 5. Committee Challenge Budget. The Committee may use up to $50,000 of the fees and costs of the Committee in the Budget in connection with a Challenge.

21 6. Approval of the Roll-Up. Pursuant to this Final Order, except to the extent successfully challenged in a challenge brought in the applicable Challenge Period, the Bankruptcy Court hereby approves the Roll-Up, which provides that for each dollar of principal amount drawn under the DIP Note Facility (excluding the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit), one dollar of principal due under the Prepetition Notes shall roll-up and convert on a cashless basis into the DIP Notes (the “Roll-Up”), provided further, however, to the extent the principal amount of the Allowed Claim is timely challenged during the applicable Challenge Period and such challenge is successful (meaning as determined by final order of the Bankruptcy Court) (such successfully

1 challenged principal amount, the “Disallowed Principal Amount”) such that the allowed principal 2 amount of the Allowed Claim (“Allowed Principal Amount”) is less than the Roll-Up amount, 3 then the Roll-Up amount shall be reduced to the Allowed Principal Amount.

4 7. Approval of the Allowed Claim. Pursuant to this Final Order, the (i) Lender shall 5 have an allowed claim equal to the obligations under the DIP Facilities and post-petition attorneys’ 6 fees and expenses, and (ii) except to the extent successfully challenged in a challenge brought in 7 the applicable Challenge Period, Prepetition Secured Parties shall have an allowed claim in an 8 amount not less than $12.84 Million (the “Allowed Claim”), which is the principal amount of the 9 Prepetition Notes, including the original issue discount. For the avoidance of doubt, the rights of 10 the Debtor or Committee to object or otherwise contest the Prepetition Secured Parties’ prepetition 11 claims in excess of $12.84 Million is not limited by the Challenge Periods and are reserved.

12 8. Credit Bidding. The DIP Agent may submit a credit bid of the obligations under 13 the DIP Facilities in connection with the sale of any asset of the Debtor (in whole or in part), 14 including without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to Section 363 or included as part of any 15 restructuring plan subject to confirmation under Section 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii) (“DIP Agent 16 Credit Bid Obligations”). Subject to the express limitations contained in Paragraph numbered 4 17 above in this Final Order, the Prepetition Collateral Agent may submit a credit bid of an amount 18 not less than the Allowed Claim, or such greater amount as allowed by the Bankruptcy Court, in 19 connection with the sale of any asset of the Debtor (in whole or in part), including without 20 limitation, sales occurring pursuant to Section 363 or included as part of any restructuring plan 21 subject to confirmation under Section 1129(b)(2)(A)(ii)-(iii) (“Prepetition Collateral Agent 22 Credit Bid Obligations”). Any motion filed by the Debtor seeking approval of bid procedures
 23 shall contain (i) a request for approval of the right of the DIP Agent to credit bid the DIP Agent
 24 Credit Bid Obligations and (ii) unless a timely challenge made within the applicable Challenge 25 Period is pending (and the Bankruptcy Court has not entered an order otherwise allowing the 26 Prepetition Collateral Agent Credit Bid Obligations to be credit bid), a request for approval of the 27 right of the Prepetition Collateral Agent to credit bid the Prepetition Collateral Agent Credit Bid 28 Obligations.

1 9. Approval of the Releases. For good and valuable consideration, including 2 facilitation of the DIP Financing, the Note Parties' (as defined in the Loan Documents), on behalf
 3 of themselves, and Debtor, on behalf of the Estate (the Estate collectively with the Note Parties, 4 "Releasors"), hereby release any and all claims, obligations, rights, suits, damages, causes of 5 action, remedies and liabilities whatsoever, including any derivative claims asserted or which could 6 be asserted on behalf of the Releasors, whether known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, existing 7 in law, equity or otherwise, that the Releasors would have been legally entitled to assert in their 8 own right (whether individually or collectively), including claims based on or relating to, or in any 9 manner arising from, in whole or in part, the Chapter 11 Case restructuring, the Chapter 11 Case,
 10 the purchase, sale or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Note Parties, the subject 11 matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any claim or equity security, or any other act 12 or omission, transaction, agreement, event or other occurrence relating to the Debtor, the 13 Prepetition Notes or the Prepetition Liens (as defined in the Loan Documents), taking place on or 14 before the entry of this Final Order against (i) the DIP Agent in its capacity as such, (ii) the DIP 15 Note Purchasers in their capacities as such, (iii) the DIP Factoring Purchasers in their capacities as 16 such, (iv) except to the extent successfully challenged in a challenge brought in the applicable 17 Challenge Period, the Prepetition Collateral Agent in its capacity as such, and (v) except to the 18 extent successfully challenged in a challenge brought in the applicable Challenge Period, the 19 Prepetition Purchasers (as defined in the Loan Documents) in their capacities as such (collectively, 20 "Releasees"), and such Releases are hereby approved and effective upon entry of this Final Order.
 21 The Releases (which shall be included in the Loan Documents) are not a defense to an objection to 22 the prepetition claims of the Prepetition Collateral Agent in its capacity as such and the Prepetition 23 Purchasers in their capacity as such brought in the Bankruptcy Court (if such objection is brought 24 during the applicable Challenge Period). Any claims arising out of the breach of the Loan 25 Documents by any party thereto are excluded from the releases provided in this paragraph, and, in 26 the event of any such breach, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to pursue any and all rights, 27 claims and damages that it may have against the other party as a result of such breach.

28 10. Authorization to Borrow/Use of Cash Collateral. Pursuant to this Final Order,

1 the Debtor is immediately authorized to (a) (i) borrow from the Lender up to an aggregate amount 2 of $4,500,000 (excluding the Roll-Up) under the DIP Note Facility and up to $1,000,000 under the 3 DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit, and (ii) factor DIP Accounts (as defined in the Loan 4 Documents) up to $10,000,000 from the Lender under the DIP Factoring Facility, all subject to and 5 in accordance with the terms of this Final Order and the Loan Documents, and (b) use the proceeds 6 of the DIP Financing and the DIP Collateral (including the Cash Collateral) in accordance with the 7 terms of the Loan Documents, this Final Order and the Budget.

8 11. DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit. Pursuant to this Final Order, the 9 Debtor is immediately authorized to borrow under the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit 10 (“DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit”). The DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit is 11 a $1.0 Million credit line under the DIP Note Facility available solely to fund Debtor’s acquisition 12 of inventory in accordance with the Budget on an as needed basis. The amounts advanced under 13 this inventory line of credit shall not be included for purposes of calculating the Roll-Up amount.
14 The DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit shall be a revolving facility. To secure the payment 15 and performance in full of the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit, and without limiting any 16 other security interest granted herein, Debtor hereby grants to the DIP Note Agent, as collateral
17 agent for the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers, a continuing first priority
18 security interest in, and pledge to, all DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers financed 19 inventory (“DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory”), 20 wherever located, whether now owned or hereafter acquired or arising, and all proceeds and 21 products thereof. Debtor represents, warrants, and covenants that the security interest granted
22 herein is and shall at all times continue to be a first priority perfected security interest in the DIP
23 Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory (subject only to the lien 24 priority set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto). Upon payment in full of the DIP Inventory 25 Acquisition Line of Credit (other than indemnification obligations for which no claim has been 26 made) and at such time as DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers obligation to 27 purchase DIP Notes under and fund the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit has terminated, 28 DIP Note Agent shall release and terminate its liens and security interests in the DIP Inventory

1 Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory.

2 12. Certain Rights Upon Liquidation of Inventory. In the event of a cessation of the 3 Debtor's business whereby Debtor is no longer actively pursuing ongoing sales, DIP Note Agent, 4 on behalf of the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers, shall have the right, without 5 further order of the Bankruptcy Court, after ten (10) days prior written notice to the Debtor and 6 Committee (the "DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory
 7 Sale Notice Period"), to sell the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed 8 Inventory at a cost determined by DIP Note Agent in its sole discretion but in accordance with the 9 requirements of Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code . DIP Note Agent, on behalf of the 10 DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers, shall have the right, without further order of 11 the Bankruptcy Court, after providing written notice to the Debtor and the expiration of the 12 applicable DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory Sale Notice
 13 Period, to sell such DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory
 14 pursuant to Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. DIP Note Agent may use the Debtor's 15 brand name(s), trademark(s), or trade name(s) and the like, directly and only related to the 16 liquidation of such DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory unless, 17 within such DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory Sale Notice
 18 Period, the Debtor notifies the DIP Note Agent in writing that the Debtor will pay off and satisfy 19 in full the outstanding principal balance, together with all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, of 20 the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit (the "Borrower DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of 21 Credit Payoff Notice"). Debtor shall pay as the DIP Note Agent directs the outstanding principal 22 balance of the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit, together with all accrued and unpaid
 23 interest thereon, within five (5) Business Days after delivery of the Borrower DIP Inventory
 24 Acquisition Line of Credit Payoff Notice. If Debtor fails to make such payment, the DIP Note
 25 Agent, on behalf of the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers, may proceed to sell
 26 such DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit Purchasers Financed Inventory pursuant to Article 27 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code.

28 13. Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtor may use the Cash Collateral to pay postpetition

1 ordinary course of business expenses to the extent allowed and permitted to be paid herein, by other 2 Bankruptcy Court order or pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code, and in accordance with, the Budget, 3 subject to: (i) the rights of the Lender and Prestige upon the occurrence of an Event of Default (as 4 defined in the Loan Documents); and (ii) the rights of the Lender and Prestige otherwise available
 5 to the Lender and Prestige under this Final Order and the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtor will not,
 6 without the prior written consent of Lender, engage in the use of the Cash Collateral of the Lender 7 other than to pay ordinary and necessary business and administrative expenses as set forth in, and 8 limited by, the Budget and consistent with this Final Order or other order of the Bankruptcy Court.
 9 The priority of Lender and Prestige's liens in Cash Collateral is set forth in Exhibit B hereto, and 10 any diminution in value of any prepetition collateral, including Cash Collateral of the Prepetition
 11 Secured Parties and Prestige shall be secured by postpetition replacement liens under Section 552
 12 of the Bankruptcy Code, with such liens not being subject to the "equities of the case" limitations.

13 14. Maturity and Termination. The maturity date of the DIP Financing shall be the 14 earliest of (a) December 31, 2023, (b) the date all DIP Notes become due and payable under the 15 Loan Documents, whether by acceleration after an Event of Default or otherwise, (c) the date of 16 the closing of a Sale Transaction (as defined in the Loan Documents) or any other sale(s) of all or 17 substantially all of the Debtor's assets, including pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, 18 and (d) the filing of a chapter 11 plan that is not an Acceptable Plan (as defined in the Loan 19 Documents) (the "Maturity Date"). Debtor's authority to use the DIP Financing or any DIP
 20 Collateral, including Cash Collateral, and the Lender's commitment to make additional advances
 21 under the DIP Financing, shall each terminate upon five (5) days after the date the Lender delivers 22 a written notice of Event of Default to the Debtor, and the U.S. Trustee, unless any such event is 23 waived, cured or extended with the written consent of the Lender.

24 15. Interest on DIP Financing. The rate of interest to be charged on advances under 25 the DIP Financing shall be: (i) the prime rate as set in the Wall Street Journal as of the date of the 26 entry of this Final Order, plus two percent (2%) for the DIP Note Facility; (ii) the prime rate as set 27 in the Wall Street Journal as of the date of the entry of this Final Order, plus two percent (2%) for 28 the DIP Factoring Facility; and (iii) the prime rate as set in the Wall Street Journal as of the date of

1 the entry of this Final Order, plus two percent (2%) for the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of 2 Credit.

3 16. Payment of DIP Fees and Expenses. The Debtor is authorized to pay all costs, 4 expenses and any other fees or other amounts payable under the terms of the Loan Documents and 5 all other reasonable, documented, out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Lender in accordance 6 with the terms of the Loan Documents (including, without limitation, the costs and expenses of 7 legal counsel). None of such fees, costs and expenses shall be subject to Bankruptcy Court approval 8 or U.S. Trustee guidelines, and no recipient of any such payment shall be required to file with 9 respect thereto any interim or final fee application with this Bankruptcy Court. Copies of the first 10 page of invoices (in summary form and redacted, as necessary, for privileged, confidential or 11 otherwise sensitive information) with respect to such fees, expenses and costs shall be provided to 12 the U.S. Trustee, counsel for the Debtor, and counsel to the Committee, and each such party shall 13 have ten (10) days from the date of such notice within which to object in writing to such payment.

14 17. Validity of Loan Documents. The Loan Documents have been properly authorized 15 and entered into by Debtor and the other Note Parties, and as may be modified shall constitute, and 16 are hereby deemed on a final basis to be, the legal, valid and binding obligations of the Debtor and 17 the other Note Parties, enforceable against the Debtor and the other Note Parties in accordance with 18 the terms of the Loan Documents for all purposes: (i) during this Chapter 11 Case; (ii) in any 19 subsequently converted Chapter 11 Case of the Debtor under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code;
20 and (iii) after dismissal of this Chapter 11 Case. None of the legality, validity, perfection, priority, 21 extent or enforceability of the DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens or the Loan Documents shall be 22 subject to any challenge, including, without limitation, an effort to equitably subordinate or avoid 23 the DIP Liens, by or on behalf of any Debtor or the Estate, any other Note Party, or any party in 24 interest in any proceeding, whether in Bankruptcy Court, federal court, state court, or any other 25 proceeding. Proceeds of the DIP Financing and the Cash Collateral shall be applied only to fund 26 allowed postpetition administrative expenses, the Debtor's working capital, and such other amounts 27 as are required or permitted to be paid pursuant to the Loan Documents, this Final Order and any 28 other orders of this Court, all subject to, limited by, and in accordance with, the Budget. No

1 obligation, payment, transfer or grant of security under the Loan Documents or this Final Order 2 shall be stayed, restrained, voided, voidable or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under 3 any applicable non-bankruptcy law, or subject to any defense, reduction, setoff, recoupment or 4 counterclaim. The rights to invoke the “equities of the case” exception to Section 552(b) of the 5 Bankruptcy Code, the right to surcharge the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Secured Parties and 6 the collateral securing the Prepetition Notes, including under Section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy
 7 Code and the right to invoke the equitable doctrine of “marshaling” with respect to the DIP
 8 Collateral and the collateral securing the Prepetition Notes has been waived and challenges 9 proscribed by this paragraph include any challenge to such waivers.

10 18. Superpriority Claim. In accordance with Section 364(c)(1), and subject to the 11 Carve-Out, the Lender shall have a superpriority administrative expense claim under Section 12 364(c)(1) (the “Superpriority Claim”) for the DIP Obligations against the Debtor, with priority
 13 as set forth on Exhibit B hereto in payment over any and all administrative expenses, adequate 14 protection claims, diminution claims and all other claims against the Debtor, now existing or 15 hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including, without limitation, any and all administrative 16 expenses or other claims of the kinds specified or ordered pursuant to any provision of the 17 Bankruptcy Code, including pursuant to Sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 364, 503(b), 506(c), 18 507(a), 507(b), 546, 726, 1113 and 1114 or otherwise, including those resulting from the conversion
 19 of this case pursuant to Section 1112, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured 20 by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy or attachment; provided however, for 21 purposes of Section 1129(a)(9)(A), the Superpriority Claim shall be considered an administrative 22 expense allowed under Section 503(b) against the Debtor, and shall be payable from and have 23 recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtor. Except as set forth in this Final 24 Order, no other superpriority claims shall be granted or allowed in the Chapter 11 Case.

25 19. DIP Collateral. As security for all DIP Obligations pursuant to this Final Order, 26 the Lender is hereby granted (without the necessity of the execution by the Debtor or the filing or 27 recordation of liens, security agreements, lock box or control agreements, financing statements, or 28 any other instruments or otherwise), the DIP Liens, priority of which is set forth on Exhibit B

1 hereto, on all present and after acquired property (whether tangible, intangible, real, personal or 2 mixed) of the Note Parties, wherever located, including, without limitation, all accounts, inventory, 3 equipment, capital stock in subsidiaries of the Note Parties, including, for the avoidance of doubt, 4 any equity or other interests in the Note Parties' non-Debtor and/or jointly-owned subsidiaries (if 5 any), investment property, instruments, chattel paper, real estate, leasehold interests, contracts, 6 patents, copyrights, trademarks and other general intangibles, including all causes of action under 7 section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code (including commercial tort claims), and all additional and 8 accessions thereto and all substitutions and replacements thereof, and all products, accounts and 9 proceeds thereof, including without limitation, all proceeds and accounts from the sale or transfer 10 of the DIP Collateral and of insurance covering the same and of any tort claims in connection 11 therewith, excluding any causes of action under Sections 502(d), 544, 545, 547, 548, 549, 550 or 12 553, including the proceeds thereof (collectively, the "DIP Collateral"). All of the DIP Liens shall 13 be created on terms, and pursuant to documentation, satisfactory to the DIP Agent, in its sole 14 discretion. Proceeds of the DIP Collateral constituting Section 541 causes of action owned by 15 Debtor shall be used to the extent necessary to (i) satisfy the Bankruptcy Court approved, 16 reasonable and documented fees and costs of professionals employed by Debtor and the Committee, 17 respectively, not to exceed the amounts of such professionals, respectively, set forth in the budget, 18 to the extent not otherwise satisfied by the Carve-Out and (ii) any unpaid portion of the DIP 19 Facilities, including the DIP Inventory Acquisition Line of Credit and DIP Factoring Facility, with 20 the balance being paid to the Estate. The DIP Liens will not be subject to challenge. Upon entry
 21 of this Final Order, the DIP Liens shall be deemed to be automatically perfected as of the Petition
 22 Date, without the need for further action of any kind; provided however, that if the Lender 23 determines, in its sole discretion, to file any financing statements, notice of liens, mortgages or any 24 other similar instruments, the Debtor will cooperate and assist in such filings and the automatic stay 25 shall be lifted without the need for further order of this Bankruptcy Court to allow such filings.

26 20. Rights of Prestige. The liens granted postpetition by the Debtor to Lender and the 27 Prepetition Secured Parties pursuant to this Final Order shall not impair nor have any priority over, 28 and are subject to, the prepetition liens of Prestige that are senior to those prepetition liens of Lender

1 and the Prepetition Secured Parties pursuant to the Prestige Intercreditor Agreement. To the extent
 2 this Final Order grants any other rights postpetition to Lender (including but not limited to the 3 superpriority administrative expense status), those rights shall not impair nor have any priority over,
 4 and are subject to, the prepetition liens of Prestige. Notwithstanding anything contained in this 5 Order, as additional adequate protection, (i) the automatic stay of Section 362(a) is modified under 6 Section 362(d)(1) to allow Prestige to collect, and apply in partial satisfaction of its prepetition
 7 claims, Debtor's prepetition Factored Accounts and any other Prepetition Accounts (as those terms 8 are defined in the Prestige Intercreditor Agreement) from the non-debtor obligors on such Factored 9 Accounts and any other Prepetition Accounts subject to Section 552(a), and apply any reserves in 10 partial satisfaction of its prepetition claims, and (ii) Prestige shall be entitled to reasonable and 11 documented postpetition fees (including attorneys fees) and out-of-pocket expenses as part of its 12 claim in accordance with its loan documents and payable subject to the value of the related 13 collateral.

14 21. Carve Out. The DIP Liens and Superpriority Claim granted under this Final Order 15 shall be subject to the prior payment of the (collectively, the "Carve Out") of up to $250,000 for 16 unpaid reasonable and documented (and approved on a final basis by the Bankruptcy Court when 17 approval is necessary) postpetition fees and expenses incurred by professionals employed by 18 Debtor and by the Committee, respectively, but in no event shall such carve-out exceed the unpaid 19 Budget amounts (on a line by line basis) for the Debtor's and the Committee's professionals, 20 respectively, prorated up to the date in the Budget coinciding with an Event of Default. In the 21 absence of a Sale Transaction Notice (as defined in the Loan Documents), there shall be a separate, 22 post Event of Default carve-out, of $125,000 for Debtor's professionals and $65,000 for the 23 Committee's professionals for post Event of Default unpaid, reasonable, and documented fees and 24 expenses (approved on a final basis by the Bankruptcy Court when approval is necessary). In the 25 event of a Sale Transaction Notice, the aggregate amount of any unpaid fees, costs and expenses,
 26 incurred after the delivery of a Sale Transaction Notice, will be paid when allowed and the Sale
 27 Transaction is completed from the $190,000 in funds expressly earmarked to fund professional fees 28 and costs in connection with a Sale Transaction.

1 22. Restrictions on Granting Postpetition Liens. Except as otherwise provided in this 2 Final Order and the Loan Documents, no claim having a priority superior or pari passu with those 3 granted by the Interim Orders and this Final Order to the Lender shall be granted or permitted 4 without further order of this Bankruptcy Court entered in the Chapter 11 Case, while any portion 5 of the DIP Financing (or refinancing thereof) or any other DIP Obligations are outstanding without 6 the prior written consent of the Lender. Except as expressly permitted by the Final Order and the 7 Loan Documents, the Debtor will not, at any time during the Chapter 11 Case, grant liens or security
8 interests in the DIP Collateral to any other parties pursuant to Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code
9 or otherwise without either (i) first obtaining the prior written consent of the Lender or (ii) 10 irrevocably satisfying the DIP Obligations in full in immediately available funds as a condition to 11 the granting of such liens. Unless all DIP Obligations shall have indefeasibly been paid in full in 12 immediately available funds (or as otherwise provided in this Final Order and the Loan 13 Documents), it shall constitute an Event of Default and terminate the right of the Debtor to use the 14 DIP Financing and Cash Collateral, if the Debtor seeks, or if there is entered, any modification or 15 extension of this Final Order, without the prior written consent of the Lender.

16 23. Automatic Effectiveness of Liens. The DIP Liens shall not be subject to challenge 17 and shall attach and become valid, perfected, enforceable, non-avoidable and effective by operation 18 of law as of the Petition Date without any further action by the Debtor or Lender without the 19 necessity of execution by the Debtor, or the filing or recordation, of any financing statements, 20 security agreements, or other documents or the taking of any other actions. The DIP Collateral 21 shall be free and clear of other liens, claims and encumbrances, except as provided in the Loan 22 Documents and this Final Order for so long as any portion of the DIP Financing (or refinancing 23 thereof) is outstanding. The Debtor is hereby authorized and directed to execute and deliver to the 24 Lender such financing statements, security agreements, mortgages, collateral assignments, 25 instruments, and documents as the Lender requests, and the Lender is hereby authorized to file or 26 record such documents in their respective discretion without seeking modification of the automatic 27 stay under Section 362, in which event all such documents shall be deemed to have been filed or 28 recorded at the time and on the date of entry of the Final Order.

1 24. Automatic Stay and Remedies. As provided herein, subject only to the provisions
 2 of the Loan Documents, the provisions of Section 362 are vacated and modified to the extent 3 necessary to permit the Lender, following an Event of Default and during the continuance of any 4 Event of Default thereafter, all rights and remedies provided for in the Loan Documents and this 5 Final Order without further order of this Bankruptcy Court.

6 25. Board of Directors; Independent Director. In accordance with the Term Sheet
 7 and Loan Documents, the Bankruptcy Court approves on a final basis the appointment of Eric 8 Hillman, Paul Karr, and the independent board member, Nicholas Rubin, to comprise Debtor's 9 three (3) member board of directors. The independent director, Nicholas Rubin (the "Independent 10 Director"), is approved on a final basis and shall have sole and exclusive responsibility with respect 11 to the Debtor for: (i) protecting and recovering the assets of the Debtor, including to determine 12 whether it is in the best interest of the Debtor to reorganize under Section 1129 of the Bankruptcy 13 Code, or sell its assets in accordance with Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code; (ii) reviewing and 14 approving the ultimate debtor-in-possession financing incurred by the Estate, as negotiated by the 15 Debtor's restructuring professionals; (iii) the investigation and determination of which Estate 16 causes of action, if any, should be pursued, prosecuted, or settled; and (iv) the maximization of 17 value for all stakeholders.

18 26. Consent to Limited Inventory Financing by JW Nutritional LLC. Unsecured
 19 creditor and inventory supplier JW Nutritional LLC ("JW") shall have the right to, at its own cost 20 and expense, after the entry of the Final Order, create inventory for the Debtor's business, 21 operations and sale, which inventory shall be held and deemed owned by JW until purchased by 22 Debtor (the "JW Financed Inventory"). In the event of a cessation of the Debtor's business 23 whereby Debtor is no longer actively pursuing ongoing sales, JW shall have the right, without 24 further order of the Bankruptcy Court, after ten (10) days prior written notice to the Debtor, 25 Committee and DIP Note Agent (the "JW Financed Inventory Sale Notice Period"), to sell the 26 JW Financed Inventory pursuant to Section 2(c)(iii) of the DIP Note Agreement unless, within the 27 JW Financed Inventory Sale Notice Period, Debtor or the DIP Note Agent notifies JW in writing
 28 that Debtor or the DIP Note Purchasers will purchase such inventory at the JW Financed Inventory

1 Cost (defined below). For JW Financed Inventory that was produced by JW at the request of the 2 Debtor that has been held by JW in excess of four (4) months, JW shall have the right, without 3 further order of the Bankruptcy Court, after providing written notice to the Debtor and the DIP
 4 Note Agent and the expiration of the applicable JW Financed Inventory Sale Notice Period, to sell 5 such JW Financed Inventory pursuant to Section 2(c)(iii) of the DIP Note Agreement unless, within 6 the JW Financed Inventory Sale Notice Period, Debtor or the DIP Note Agent notifies JW in writing
 7 that Debtor or the DIP Note Purchasers will purchase such inventory at the JW Financed Inventory
 8 Cost. JW may use the Debtor's brand name(s), trademark(s), or trade name(s) and the like, directly 9 and only related to the liquidation of such JW Financed Inventory pursuant to Section 2(c)(iii) of 10 the DIP Note Agreement. For purposes of this Final Order, the term "JW Financed Inventory
 11 Cost" shall mean JW's fully loaded cost, including cost of storing product, based on the current 12 pricing to the Borrower as of the most recent quarterly quoted price between JW and the Debtor.
 13 In the event of a Sale Transaction, the purchaser shall either (1) buy the JW Financed Inventory 14 from JW at the JW Financed Inventory Cost, or (2) allow JW to sell the JW Financed Inventory on 15 the terms set forth in Section 2(c)(iii) of the DIP Note Agreement.

16 27. Indemnification. The "Expense and Indemnification" provisions set forth in the 17 Loan Documents are approved, provided however, such indemnification shall exclude out-of-18 pocket costs and expenses (including but not limited to reasonable and documented legal fees and 19 expenses) arising out of post-petition litigation between the DIP Agent, on the one hand, and White 20 Winston and/or Ryan Drexler, on the other hand, regarding the Prepetition Notes (as defined in the 21 Loan Documents) or claims between those parties, including any claims that may be prosecuted in 22 the Chapter 11 Case, that are not Debtor or Estate claims. For the avoidance of doubt, the excluded 23 out-of-pocket costs and expenses are intended to be inclusive of discovery concerning claims
 24 related to the Prepetition Notes of the DIP Agent, on the one hand, and White Winston and/or Ryan 25 Drexler, on the other hand, conducted by 2004 examination,

26 28. Factoring and Other Reporting. Debtor, or another party designated by Debtor 27 and the DIP Factoring Agent, shall provide a weekly factoring report to the DIP Agents and the 28 Committee identifying each DIP account ("DIP Account") purchased, the purchase amount of such

1 DIP Account, the date the DIP Account is due and the days overdue of any overdue DIP Account, 2 the amount of the DIP Account due, and any payments received. The DIP Agents shall confirm 3 whether or not DIP Agents agree with the information in each weekly factoring report. Further,
 4 the Debtor shall deliver to the DIP Note Agent and the Committee copies of all non-privileged 5 reports of the financial and restructuring advisors of the Debtor as reasonably requested by the DIP
 6 Note Agent, including but not limited to: (i) any analysis of cash flows, forecasts, and potential cost
 7 savings initiatives; (ii) transaction marketing material (CIMs / MPs); (iii) investor outreach list; (iv) 8 sale process updates; and (v) proposed sources and uses of funds at emergence from bankruptcy.

9 29. Forensic Accountant. At the request of the DIP Agent and approval of the Board
 10 of Directors, the Debtor shall retain a forensic accountant reasonably acceptable to the DIP Agent 11 (the “Forensic Accountant”) to review and analyze all Debtor’s bank statements for three (3) or 12 more years prior to the Petition Date and any other documents and information necessary to 13 investigate payments and transfers from Debtor to determine whether they are avoidable under 14 federal and state law. The DIP Agent will increase the DIP Facility in the amount necessary to pay 15 for the forensic accounting in an amount agreed to be the DIP Agent and the Debtor.

16 30. No Creation or Evidence of Liability to Third Parties or Alter Ego
 17 Relationship. The Lender shall not be found or deemed to be an alter ego of any of the Debtor, in 18 a partnership of any kind with any of the Debtor, in a principal-agent relationship with the Debtor 19 or otherwise liable for any liabilities of any of the Debtor, and the Debtor shall not be found or 20 deemed to be a mere instrumentality of the Lender as a result of the Lender deciding to advance
 21 the DIP Financing to the Debtor, negotiating and entering into the Loan Documents and this Final 22 Order, administering the DIP Financing, consenting to the Budget, or taking any other actions 23 permitted by the Final Order or the Loan Documents, and no such action (or conduct taken in 24 furtherance of or comprising an integral part of any such action) shall be admissible in any 25 proceeding as evidence that the Lender is the alter ego, partner, principal of, or otherwise liable for 26 any liability of the Debtor.

27 31. Binding Effect. The provisions of this Final Order shall be binding upon and inure
 28 to the benefit of the Lender, the Debtor, and all parties in interest, and their respective successors

1 and assigns (including any chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee hereinafter appointed or elected, an 2 examiner appointed pursuant to section 1104 of the Bankruptcy Code or any other fiduciary 3 appointed as a legal representative of the Debtor or with respect to the property of the Estate). To 4 the extent permitted by applicable law, this Final Order shall bind any trustee hereafter appointed 5 for the Estate, whether in this Chapter 11 Case or in the event of the conversion to a liquidation
 6 under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. Such binding effect is an integral part of this Final Order.

7 32. Survival. The provisions of this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto
 8 shall survive the entry of any order, including an order: (a) confirming any plan of reorganization 9 or liquidation in this Chapter 11 Case (and, to the extent not irrevocably satisfied in full in 10 immediately available funds, the DIP Obligations shall not be discharged by the entry of any such 11 order pursuant to Section 1141(d)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise); (b) converting the 12 Chapter 11 Case to a chapter 7 case; or (c) dismissing the Chapter 11 Case. The terms and 13 provisions of this Final Order, as well as the DIP Obligations and the DIP Liens granted pursuant 14 to this Final Order and the Loan Documents shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding 15 the entry of any such order. The DIP Obligations and the DIP Liens shall maintain their priority as 16 provided by this Final Order and the Loan Documents and to the maximum extent permitted by 17 law, until all of the DIP Obligations are indefeasibly paid in full and discharged. In no event shall 18 any plan of reorganization be allowed to alter the terms of repayment of any of the DIP Obligations 19 from those set forth in the Loan Documents without the written consent of the Lender. Unless all 20 DIP Obligations shall have indefeasibly been paid in full, it shall constitute an Event of Default and 21 terminate the right of the Debtor to use Cash Collateral under this Final Order if Debtor seeks, or 22 if there is entered, (x) any modification or extension of this Final Order without the prior written 23 consent of the Lender, or (y) an order converting or dismissing the Chapter 11 Case.

24 33. Non-Material Modifications of the Loan Documents. The Debtor and the Lender
 25 are hereby authorized to implement, in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this 26 Final Order, any non-material modifications of the Loan Documents without further order of this 27 Bankruptcy Court; provided that the Debtor shall provide notice of any such modifications to 28 counsel for the Committee and the U.S. Trustee.

1 34. Protection Under Section 364(e). If any or all of the provisions of this Final Order 2 are hereafter reversed, modified, vacated or stayed, such reversal, modification, vacation or stay 3 shall not affect the (i) validity of any DIP Obligations owing to the Lender incurred prior to the 4 actual receipt by both Lender of written notice of the effective date of such reversal, modification, 5 vacation or stay, or (ii) validity or enforceability of any claim, lien, security interest or priority
 6 authorized or created hereby or pursuant to the Loan Documents with respect to any DIP
 7 Obligations. Notwithstanding any such reversal, modification, vacation or stay, any use of Cash
 8 Collateral or the incurrence of DIP Obligations by the Debtor prior to the actual receipt by both 9 Lender of written notice of the effective date of such reversal, modification, vacation or stay, shall 10 be governed in all respects by the provisions of this Final Order, and the Loan Documents and any 11 paperwork issued pursuant to and in conformance therewith, and the Lender shall be entitled to all 12 of the rights, remedies, protections and benefits granted under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy 13 Code, this Final Order and the Loan Documents with respect to all uses of Cash Collateral and the 14 incurrence of DIP Obligations.

15 35. Choice of Law; Jurisdiction; Standing. The DIP Financing and the Loan 16 Documents and any paperwork issued pursuant to and in conformance therewith, (and the rights 17 and obligations of the parties thereto) shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the 18 laws of the State of Nevada, without regard to the conflict of law principles thereof. Each party to 19 the Loan Documents will waive the rights to trial by jury and will consent to jurisdiction of the 20 Bankruptcy Court for so long as the Chapter 11 Case remains open and, thereafter, the state and 21 federal courts set forth in the Loan Documents executed between and among the parties. The 22 Lender shall have standing, as a party-in-interest under Section 1109(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, 23 to raise and appear and be heard on any issue in the Chapter 11 Case.

24 36. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. This Final Order constitutes, where 25 applicable, findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall take effect and be fully enforceable 26 immediately upon the entry thereof. Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law, and 27 conclusions of law be construed as findings of fact, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052.

28 37. Final Order Effective. This Final Order shall take effect immediately

1 notwithstanding anything to the contrary prescribed by applicable law.

2 38. Final Order Controlling; Failure to Specify Provisions. The Loan Documents ar
 3 approved only to the extent they are consistent with the Term Sheet. In the event of a material
 4 conflict between this Final Order and the Loan Documents, the Final Order shall control, provided 5 that there shall not be deemed a material conflict as a result of the Loan Documents including 6 additional terms and provisions from not inconsistent with the Term Sheet and this Final Order, 7 and the failure specifically to include any particular provisions of the Loan Documents in this Final 8 Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the 9 Bankruptcy Court, and the Debtor and the Lender, that this Final Order and the Loan Documents 10 be read together and consistent with one another, and that any paperwork issued pursuant to and in 11 conformance therewith, are authorized and approved in their entirety with such amendments thereto 12 as may be made by the parties in accordance with this Final Order.

13 39. Interim Orders Superseded by this Final Order; Exceptions. Except to the 14 extent that any of the Lender's and the DIP Agent's rights, remedies, claims, security interests
 15 and priorities granted by the Bankruptcy Court during the period from the Petition Date to the entry 16 of this Final Order would be diminished in any way, the Interim Orders are superseded by this Final 17 Order.

18 40. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear 19 and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Final Order.

4 THE COURT: All right. Good morning. I'll just go 5 through here as I see you on the screen and you can make your 6 appearance. Next to me there is somebody who is not on video, 7 so I'm assuming they're not making an appearance.

8 So I'll move to John Fiero. If you would, please, 9 make your appearance.

10 MR. FIERO: Good morning, Your Honor. It's John 11 Fiero of Pachulski, Stang, Ziehl & Jones, for the Creditors'

20 our Nevada co-counsel; Mr. Todd Enright, our affiant; and also 21 with me are two attorneys who are going to be litigation co-22 counsel, Mr. Harry Murphy and Mr. Charlie Bennett. They are on 23 the telephone. They are not licensed in Nevada. Their pro hac 24 vice motions should be filed shortly. I would ask, if 25 necessary, Your Honor, if you'll allow them to be heard today.

1 THE COURT: Yes, that's fine.

2 MR. STERNKLAR: Thank you, Your Honor.

3 THE COURT: You're welcome.

4 All right. Mr. Day.

13 appearance, as well?

14 MR. WEISENMILLER: Good morning, Your Honor. Mark

17 THE COURT: Thank you.

18 Ms. Johnson.

19 (No audible response)

20 THE COURT: Ms. Johnson, I'll come back. I have one 21 other person on the screen.

22 Mr. Rubin, I apologize. I don't recall if you're an 23 attorney or which party you're with. So, if you would let me 24 know; and if you are an attorney and want to make your 25 appearance, please do so.

1 MR. RUBIN: I'm not an attorney, Your Honor.

2 Nicholas Rubin. I'm the independent director for MusclePharm.

3 THE COURT: Oh, okay. All right. Thank you.

4 All right. Ms. Johnson, I see that -- your 5 appearance. Do you want to work on your sound? Do you need to 6 be heard today?

7 (No audible response)

8 THE COURT: Okay. All right then.

9 All right. Well, Mr. Schwartz, why don't you give me 10 an idea of where we're at and what's going to happen today.

11 MR. SCHWARTZ: Certainly. Thank you, Your Honor.

12 And I just want to clarify that Ms. Gabby Hamm, Bryan Lindsey, 13 and Athanasios Agelakopoulos of Schwartz Law are also on the 14 line.

15 So, Your Honor, I'm happy to report that, with a lot 16 of back and forth, we have an agreement in principal with 17 respect to the DIP financing, which I believe is Item 1 on your 18 calendar.

19 My plan today was to put that agreement on the 20 record; walk through what I think are some of the improved and 21 finer points of the financing that's been negotiated since last 22 we were in front of you; answer any questions the Court may 23 have; allow parties to make any statements they may need to 24 make. And then, I think, Your Honor, the balance of your 25 docket is fairly uncontroversial, what's left. So, if that

1 pleases the Court, I would proceed in that fashion.

2 THE COURT: So it is a settlement with all parties
3 then, all of -- I mean, I know White Winston filed an 4 objection. The Committee had a limited objection. Is that 5 resolved, with what you're going to tell me today?

6 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. Yes. That is 7 my understanding, as well, that the Committee's objection is 8 resolved. The White Winston objection, with the 9 representations on the record, will be withdrawn. And we will 10 be able to proceed forward, Your Honor, with respect to the 11 financing as proposed.

12 THE COURT: I really didn't expect that, but that's 13 good news. I would like to hear that.

14 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I don't know
15 that any of us did. I think I said to Mr. Sternklar last night 16 that I was pretty sure a pig just flew by my window, but (audio 17 interference) to confirm it first before we said that for sure.

18 So, Your Honor, so the -- a key part of the financing 19 that's proposed is the ability of the Committee, as well as 20 White Winston, to propose or to file challenges to that 21 financing. And so the term sheet that's in front of you has a 22 carveout of 60 days for the Committee to file its challenge, 23 and 30 days for White Winston to file a challenge. And it 24 would be to the prepetition claims, Your Honor. Certainly no 25 one is raising a challenge to the post-petition financing. The

1 Court will be approving. However, if there is a challenge to 2 the prepetition claims, want to be clear what that effect will 3 have as the case goes forward. And so we'll put those in the 4 record for you, Your Honor.

5 If -- and I think, Your Honor, the Committee's 6 challenge rights and the effect of that are subsumed in the 7 term sheet and the documents. I don't think there's any 8 dispute about what happens if the term sheet -- or, I'm sorry 9 -- if the Committee files a challenge. But if White Winston 10 files a challenge or an objection to Empery's prepetition 11 claim: number one, that prepetition claim would -- shall not 12 be deemed allowed, to the extent objected to, absent Empery
13 obtaining a further order of the Court, or unless the objection 14 is withdrawn. So, if White Winston files an objection, Your 15 Honor, to the prepetition claim, to the extent of that 16 objection -- they may not object to everything -- to the extent 17 of that objection, then Empery's claim would not be allowed, 18 unless there's a further order of the Court.

19 Two, if White Winston objects to Empery's prepetition 20 claim, Empery shall not be entitled to credit bid that 21 prepetition claim. Again, to the extent objected to, absent a 22 final order of the Court resolving it -- or some (audio 23 interference) I should say -- further order of the Court, not 24 final order, or unless the objection is withdrawn.

25 Three, if White Winston objects to the Empery

1 prepetition claim and a sale of the debtor's assets occurs 2 before the claim is resolved, the proceeds will be held by the 3 estate, to the extent of the objection, absent Empery obtaining 4 further order of the bankruptcy court, or unless the objection 5 is withdrawn.

6 And last, the releases that are contained in the term
7 sheet, which are intended to be incorporated into the DIP loan 8 documents, are not a defense to a claim objection brought by 9 White Winston in the bankruptcy court. Again, if such 10 objection is brought during the challenge period, as defined in 11 the term sheet -- so White Winston doesn't want to hear Empery 12 say, well, that's nice that you objected, but we have releases.

13 So, generally speaking, Your Honor, the purpose of 14 that language is to make clear that if White Winston objects -- 15 and they have under the term sheet presently until March 9th to 16 do that -- they object, and there's a sale that comes along -- 17 I know the Court was concerned about the timing of when a sale 18 may occur -- the poison pills you've heard about, I think those 19 issues -- the purpose of the language from the debtor's 20 perspective is to preserve the parties' rights, that while a 21 sale was going forward or some other matter, absent further 22 order of the Court or a withdrawal of the objection, the 23 parties would be in front of you and the Court would resolve 24 issues related to credit bidding, to payment of claims, all 25 those matters, which I think, Your Honor, frankly, is the law.

1 So we were happy to get that accommodation done and 2 there's been quite a bit up and back. So, Your Honor, a couple 3 of points of clarification to make sure it's clear. The 4 parties agree that any money that would be rolled up is part of 5 the prepetition claim. To the extent there's an objection to 6 the prepetition claim, that would -- could have an impact on 7 the rollup, again, to the extent of the objection and subject 8 to further order of the Court.

9 The DIP documents, as I highlighted earlier, will be 10 consistent with these representations. And Your Honor -- and 11 the parties have agreed these representations and agreements
12 will be incorporated into the final order approving DIP
13 financing, and everyone's rights under Rule 9021 are preserved, 14 of course.

15 So, with that as a backdrop, Your Honor, and subject
16 to maybe what perhaps Mr. Garman, Mr. Sternklar, or Mr. Fiero
17 or Mr. Rosell -- whichever is going to speak for the Committee, 18 wish to say, that's the crux of the agreement, Your Honor, that 19 allows us to resolve or withdraw objections today; and then I 20 can go forward maybe into a little more of the meat of the 21 revised term sheet.

22 THE COURT: All right. Yes, Mr. Sternklar. You want 23 to respond?

24 MR. STERNKLAR: Thank you, Your Honor. I think 25 Mr. Schwartz accurately set forth the terms of our deal in

1 principal. We obviously still have always believed our 2 proposal was superior, but the debtor clearly is going in a 3 different direction, and we think that this proposal eliminates 4 our principal concerns for what we call the poison pills.

5 Your Honor, just to emphasize some of the points I 6 believe Mr. Schwartz noted, the proposed order will say that 7 essentially notwithstanding anything in the term sheet, these 8 provisions will govern the scope of the authorization the Court 9 is going to be asked to give.

10 We may need to come back to you if we find we have 11 disputes about the form of order. We hope we can avoid that.
12 It wasn't fun the last time, and no one thinks it's fun this 13 time. But you know, I don't want to be confronted with an 14 order that we have no input into. So, if that happens and 15 we're back in front of you, or for any reason we're back in 16 front of you, I particularly -- as someone who doesn't practice 17 regularly in your court, if there's something in particular you 18 want done, we'd like to be sure we do it.

19 Similarly, we may be back in front of you with 20 respect to the timing of March 9th. We're probably going to 21 need more time than that. If we can't get it by agreement, we 22 expect we'll be back in front of you on shortened notice
23 seeking more timing than March 9th.

24 And of lesser importance, but still things that I 25 think need to be done, there were -- I assume Mr. Schwartz will

1 get to this -- a couple other things he was going to clarify.
2 Particularly, there's a reference in the term sheet to Section
3 541 claims, and I for one have no earthly idea what that refers 4 to. And Mr. Schwartz was going to clarify that -- what that 5 meant, on the record.

6 And in terms of timing, Your Honor, on a more
7 personal matter, I had a longstanding family vacation scheduled 8 beginning tomorrow that will keep me out of the office until 9 Wednesday, so I'd be grateful for any accommodations Your Honor 10 can give me, so I don't have to interrupt a family vacation.

11 I think that's largely it, Your Honor. Thank you.
12 And I'll answer any questions you have.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. I don't have any 14 at the moment.

15 Mr. Fiero, are you speaking or is it going to be 16 Mr. Rosell?

17 MR. FIERO: Yes, Your Honor. It's John Fiero for the 18 Committee. Mr. Schwartz accurately described the Committee's 19 position. We did file a limited objection. The vast majority 20 of our concerns have been addressed. And to the extent that 21 they have not been, we're okay with the outcome at this point, 22 subject to two things, which we raised in our very brief
23 pleading and which Mr. Sternklar has a similar concern about.
24 And that's simply what do the DIP loan documents say, and what 25 does the DIP order say.

1 And so, on those two, we may need to pick a nit or 2 two, but we're hopeful that that won't be the case. In the 3 first go-round, Your Honor, the Committee had no issues with 4 the order, and instead found itself trying to convince others
5 that, you know, the language in the order was acceptable.

6 So we're here to work with the debtor, we look 7 forward to this financing being in place, and we don't intend 8 to raise any objections today at today's hearing.

9 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

10 Mr. Day, I don't believe that the U.S. Trustee's 11 office had filed any opposition, but I'll give you an 12 opportunity to be heard, if you'd like, on this.

13 MR. DAY: Thank you, Your Honor. And that's correct.
14 We did not and we don't have anything further to add with 15 regard to this particular motion.

17 Mr. Garman.

18 MR. GARMAN: Yes, Your Honor. Quickly, I think I'm 19 going to address these a bit separately. So we've made 20 meaningful concessions allowing White Winston to object to our 21 claim. More money. The independent director came in and made 22 certain requests. We had really, really constructive, 23 face-to-face meetings with the Committee, I think, to alleviate 24 their concerns. I think those are -- I think these are pretty 25 strong working relationships. I do think everyone's working

1 towards this debtor getting its feet back under it, and 2 hopefully working towards a positive resolution here.

3 The words that Mr. Schwartz read were careful. I can 4 assure the Court that the order will faithfully put those words
5 into it. I believe -- we have a 28-day page binding term sheet 6 here. This isn't a one-page term sheet. We know what these 7 terms are. I am confident that you're going to see loan 8 documents that are faithful to this term sheet, faithful to the 9 resolution that was put on the record this morning.

10 I, like Mr. Sternklar, am optimistic that we're not 11 going to be back in front of you. I think we all know where 12 we're going. But the parties worked late -- worked late into 13 the night, early in the morning, to find a resolution to get us 14 here, because this debtor needs to get moving if it's going to 15 get out of bankruptcy. And I just wanted to highlight that 16 we've made a lot of meaningful, additional concessions. And I
17 think Mr. Sternklar's concerns -- again, I know he doesn't like 18 it, but I think his concerns have been addressed in those 19 careful words that Mr. Schwartz addressed, and they will be in 20 the order, and we will all live to either get along or fight 21 another day moving this debtor forward.

22 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23 Is there anybody that I've missed that wanted to be 24 heard? Mr. Roldan, go ahead.

25 MR. ROLDAN: Yes, Your Honor. Hi there. I have no

1 comment on the resolution with White Winston. I did have -- 2 I'm pleased to hear that the objections have been resolved.

3 If we're -- I did have separate comments to the DIP
4 in general and the proposed order. I wasn't sure if right now
5 is the appropriate time to do that. These are issues
6 pertaining strictly to Prestige and adequate protection. I'm 7 happy to wait and allow the debtor to present the rest of its 8 case with respect to the DIP motion, or I'll just bring up our 9 issues right now. I do believe that these issues have been 10 resolved.

11 THE COURT: That's fine. You can go ahead and state 12 it now.

13 MR. ROLDAN: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. My issues
14 are pretty discrete with respect to the adequate protection.
15 Prestige is a prepetition factor. We have a first lien on all 16 prepetition accounts receivable. We had -- the first -- the 17 initial DIP orders had provisions with respect to adequate 18 protection and use of cash collateral. Those DIP orders didn't 19 contemplate use of prepetition AR.

20 Now that there is AR that is being collected, we had 21 discussion with the debtor that we're not protected with 22 respect to if the debtor were to use that prepetition AR. And 23 so we had some informal discussions with the debtor, and I
24 believe there's a resolution that Prestige is able to collect 25 that prepetition AR and allow it to reduce its prepetition

1 claim.

2 There was one other adequate protection comment. The 3 existing term sheet gives Empery reasonable fees and expenses
4 with respect to its -- on the prepetition portion of its claim, 5 and we just ask the debtor for likewise protection as further 6 adequate protection for Prestige. And I believe that the 7 debtor is amenable to that.

8 THE COURT: Anything else, Mr. Roldan?

9 MR. ROLDAN: All right. Thank you.

10 All right, Mr. Schwartz. I believe it's back to you 11 now, if you want to --

12 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you.

13 THE COURT: -- continue on with the term sheet.

14 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. So I think the 15 key highlights of the improvements that were made are in the 16 chart that we had on Pages 2 to 3 of our reply at Docket 213.

17 THE COURT: Hold on one second. So you're not 18 looking at the Exhibit 1, the redline.

19 MR. SCHWARTZ: I was going to give, Your Honor, the 20 summary of what occurred, and see what questions the Court may 21 have. We have, generally, the parties confirming that there's 22 an agreement today. I thought I would go through the 23 highlights. And then, Your Honor, I'd go as far into the weeds 24 as the Court would like.

25 THE COURT: Just let me get there. I only have the 1 chart up. I don't have everything else up. So one second.

2 (Pause)

3 THE COURT: All right. I'm there. Go ahead.

4 MR. SCHWARTZ: So, Your Honor, as the Court, I'm 5 sure, recalls from the prior hearing, one of the concerns that 6 White Winston and I think the Committee voiced were fears that 7 what happens to this debtor, you know, after April, May of next 8 year, and that it was forecasting to be -- forecast to be cash 9 flow negative. We're starting up in general, Your Honor. We 10 have startup costs. We have to build inventory. And I'll come 11 back to that. You know, we have overhead. We have revenues
12 that are just beginning to pick back up. I mean, the company 13 really had stopped operating at the end of last year.

14 So we have negotiated a transaction that allows the 15 debtor to be funded, and I would submit, Your Honor, throughout 16 the year, provided it hits certain benchmarks. So the first, 17 Your Honor, is that the revised term sheet provides $2 million 18 of additional financing if the debtor becomes EBITDA positive.
19 And what's important about -- I applaud Mr. Rubin here in 20 actually proposing and helping negotiate this particular term 21 -- in that, you know, the fear of all parties is that -- and 22 including the Committee -- is that the debtor operates and 23 continues to just turn losses, and we're just paying 24 restructuring costs, and what are we really doing in this case 25 if the debtor's not beginning to turn around and operate

1 successfully.

2 So what we developed -- was a good thing, actually,
3 Your Honor, the Turnaround Management Association was here last 4 week, and allowed us to have an in-person meeting to flesh out
5 some of these things. Funny how that works. And so we fleshed 6 out the EBITDA test, which -- it's an accrual-based test that 7 will be used to -- initially to forecast what the debtor
8 anticipates will be profitability, excluding extraordinary 9 items, you know, restructuring costs, the things that would not 10 be involved in the debtor's operations, if you will, if it 11 wasn't in bankruptcy.

12 So, assuming the debtor's beginning to move in the 13 right direction there, the debtor can unlock financing. The 14 first test will be at the end of May. And so -- and it has to 15 forecast that, at the end of June, the debtor will be, again, 16 EBITDA positive, on an accrual basis, excluding all of these 17 matters. It also has to forecast that the debtor would be 18 EBITDA positive, again on this accrual basis, from June, July, 19 and August. We're looking at a 30-day period and at a 90-day 20 period.

21 And assuming the debtor can achieve that forecast, 22 then Empery will unlock $500,000 of financing, on or about June 23 5th of this year, which largely fills what the projected 24 negative balance will be from an estate perspective, what's in 25 the budget.

1 Then, on every month going forward, in June --
2 again, we have then next the June test. There was a May test, 3 Your Honor, that is for June forecast; and then the three 4 months, June-July-August forecast. Then, again, in June, we 5 look at what was June actual. And then we forecast August.
6 And we do that every month, so -- for the rest of the case.

7 So, as long as in each month that actual month is 8 EBITDA positive under the test, and then forecast the following 9 month to be EBITDA positive, Emery will unlock another half 10 million dollars of funding each month. So at a half million 11 dollars in June, and a quarter of a million dollars per month 12 through December, it's a total of $2 million in financing.

13 So it allows, you know, for some thoughtful testing.
14 It allows us to get the company moving. It excludes the costs 15 that will go away when the company comes out of bankruptcy, and 16 allows us to get to a thoughtful place, you know, throughout 17 the case.

18 If not, Your Honor, then we swing to a sale. Emery 19 will put up up to a half million dollars in financing if we 20 have to swing to a sale. There are some carveouts that go with 21 that, depending where we are in the budget. But so there's 22 money that if we have to swing to a sale, we swing to a sale.

23 So, largely, Your Honor, we think -- I think from the 24 professionals' perspective, it's sufficient financing. If 25 things don't look good in May and we have to go to a sale,

1 we'll go to a sale. So -- or anywhere along that arc. But 2 you know, the -- probably the lowest point, Your Honor, in the 3 arc will be May-June, when the company projects to be between 4 5- and $600,000 cash flow negative, and the first 500 would 5 come in. That's about the low point, we think. But you know, 6 from the professionals' perspective, again, it's manageable.
7 So that's part one.

8 Two, Empery's also providing a million dollars of 9 inventory financing. And so that's important, Your Honor, just 10 from a pure operational perspective. You know, when you talk 11 to the sales team, and certainly Mr. Hillman, you know, he 12 thinks our forecast and sales are readily achievable provided 13 we have inventory we can actually sell to people.

14 So, you know, one of the biggest concerns the company 15 had was, well, great, we can sell, but when can we deliver?
16 And so Empery has agreed that as soon as the debtor asks for or 17 says it's ready for inventory financing, it will provide it, on 18 an as-needed basis, up to a million dollars.

19 In addition, Your Honor, what was negotiated in the 20 term sheet is that our supplier and co-packer, JW Nutritional, 21 who's holding inventory now, has also said it will provide the 22 debtor at its cost not only $1 million of inventory, it will 23 hold it for us.

24 So the debtor now has effectively inventory
25 facilities that allow it to build up to $2 million of inventory

1 at a cost basis. And so, when you start talking about 2 $2 million of inventory, that the debtor could ultimately sell 3 and deliver, we believe -- you know, talking again with the 4 company and just looking at the overall prospects, the debtor 5 can ramp up inventory production quicker and then begin to 6 deliver quicker. We think the sale projections that are in the 7 budget now can be exceeded.

8 So what's important about that, Your Honor, is that 9 the debtor believes it has something between a 20 and 30 10 percent margin with its products. And that margin needs to 11 move up. The debtor decided to forego rate increases and price 12 increases during the pandemic when competitors were raising 13 prices, and so there are some price increases we need to push 14 through into the market, and I think -- our understanding is 15 everyone expects those price increases are coming. As the 16 Court knows, the cost of everything is up, so -- especially the 17 protein.

18 So cost increases will come. We think our margins 19 will expand. What that margin on $2 million of inventory, 20 Your Honor, basically fills, if you were to walk through the 21 budget, what is another roughly 5- or $600,000 gap. Our 20 to 22 30 percent margin on that $2 million of inventory, which is 4-23 to $600,000, now begins if not entirely fills the gap that we 24 forecast may exist through the course of the year, if we can 25 make it that far. And if we can accelerate sales, because now

1 we can deliver, then suddenly we think we can exceed everything
2 that's in the budget. And if not, Your Honor, again, we can't 3 pass the EBITDA test early in the year, we swing to a sale.

4 So, as you sit here, Your Honor, in the beginning of 5 February, with a company that's starting up, I'm not sure that 6 this particular debtor could ask for a whole lot more in terms 7 of what it would hope to have and the ability to turn its 8 business around, to operate, to manufacture, and to deliver.

9 So, Your Honor, those were, Your Honor, the big 10 financial components of what were negotiated over the course 11 of the last few weeks, with the help of everyone and it's -- 12 you know, as the Court said, as much as you were surprised, 13 Your Honor, I will say all the parties have tried hard. I 14 think there is a real belief there is a real business here.
15 And while, you know, the parties may not necessarily like each 16 other a whole lot, they certainly see the upside of the 17 operation and, you know, the economic interest of the parties, 18 I think, prevailed in this negotiation, which is encouraging, 19 at least for debtor's counsel.

20 I'll stop there for a second, you know, and highlight 21 -- I think that kind of tells you how the budget unfolds and 22 how we think it will play out through the course of the year.
23 The monthly operating reports will tell the story, I think, as 24 we work our way through the case. The rest has remained the 25 same in terms of the plan filing and timing. We still have

1 until September 30th to file a plan. It needs to be confirmed
2 by December 15th. We have until March 15th to provide the 3 final budget that we have to stick to on variances, of 4 90 percent of sales and 110 percent of expenses. So all of 5 those types of benchmarks and components have not moved, at 6 all, in terms of what's in front of you; and the parties have 7 agreed, you know, we'll deal with it through the course of the 8 case. Let's see how -- let's get the business going, and we 9 can decide what else we really need to fight about.

10 So, Your Honor, let me pause there and then -- 11 because I think we've talked about credit bidding, which is 12 next in the chart, and I want to go to some of the other 13 pieces, unless the Court has questions.

14 THE COURT: I don't have anything right now, so go 15 ahead.

16 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I was going to 17 let the record reflect you were shaking your head, so -- since 18 -- for the transcript.

19 So next, Your Honor, as Mr. Sternklar called them, 20 the "poison pills," we have reduced defaults and reduced
21 indemnity obligations. If you recall, a real concern for I 22 think White Winston and for us was that it was a default if any 23 equity holders objected to Empery's claim. And in addition, 24 the debtor had to pay Empery's fees and costs related to that.

25 So the term sheet and ultimately the DIP documents

1 now have carved those things out, so it is no longer a default
2 for White Winston to file its objection to the claim, for 3 Mr. Drexler to file litigation, which as the Court may have 4 seen at Docket 216, he has done this week. The debtor no
5 longer has to pay for those costs. So now it's an issue 6 between those parties.

7 So those were material changes, Your Honor. Because 8 if those didn't come out, we would be in default today. Right?
9 I mean, we would be having a much different discussion, not to 10 mention the costs that would be incurred necessarily to cover 11 that likely would tip over the budget again.

12 So those are material concessions, Your Honor, 13 because they're real issues that are happening. And with White 14 Winston's, you know, upcoming objection, going to happen. So 15 those changes occurred, Your Honor, and that was certainly a 16 win for the estate or two wins for the estate.

17 And then, to touch on Mr. Sternklar's 541 causes of 18 action comment, so the Chapter 5 causes of action are 19 necessarily carved out of the DIP collateral. So the 20 collateral that belongs to Empery, that's been carved out.
21 547s, 548s, 544s. That's all carved out.

22 What is -- not -- what is Empery's collateral would 23 be the commercial torts and the D&O claims, arguably, are 24 Empery's collateral. However, Empery has agreed -- and that's 25 what are called the 541 claims, so it's basically everything

1 else that isn't carved out of DIP collateral.

2 So, if you look at the definition, the definition 3 says DIP collateral excludes Chapter 5 causes of action. And 4 then the catch-all says to the extent the DIP collateral 5 includes 541 claims, which would be everything else, those 6 claims then are earmarked -- I think as Mr. Noall would call 7 it, or I would say subject to a waterfall -- they go to pay 8 unpaid professional fees, to the extent there are any, subject
9 to the budget. There are then -- would pay then Empery's 10 post-petition claims, to the extent they were unpaid for any 11 reason. And then it would waterfall, third, to unsecured 12 creditors.

13 So that's the concession to split what Mr. Sternklar
14 was asking about the 541s. So, again, Chapter 5s are excluded 15 altogether. Everything else, waterfalls.

16 So that, Your Honor, really are the key components of 17 the DIP financing that have changed since last we were here.
18 More money, fewer defaults, better rights for the parties to go 19 forward, and -- one other caveat, Your Honor, I forgot to 20 mention.

21 The debtor is going to agree with JW -- it's in the 22 term sheet -- and with Empery that they're going to help us 23 build inventory. In the event we're building inventory and 24 there's a default along that arc that cannot be resolved and we 25 have to go to a sale, the debtor will give both JW and Empery a

1 license to use its intellectual property -- meaning really its 2 name -- to sell the product, because the product does expire.
3 It is not product that can sit on a shelf forever.

4 So, if there is a default and things go sideways, we 5 -- and there's a liquidation, if you will, Your Honor, and a 6 sale, then both those parties can liquidate their inventory and 7 protect themselves, so they don't run into, you know, expired 8 inventory and they're stuck.

9 And I think there are going to be some negotiations 10 between the parties that -- Empery, for example, if for 11 whatever reason it didn't want JW to be selling its inventory 12 at a cost or a price it wouldn't accept, it can buy it from JW, 13 and turn around and sell it itself. So those parties may have 14 a side agreement in terms of how they'll handle the liquidation 15 of the inventory, but the debtor's amenable to that.

16 To the extent we're in a place where we're 17 liquidating, we don't want to see anyone suffer an unnecessary 18 loss, so the debtor will certainly license its name for the 19 limited purpose of selling that inventory to the extent it 20 exists.

21 And then with Prestige, Your Honor, to cover their -- 22 we do believe that Prestige has a perfected first priority 23 interest in not only the debtor's receivables, but of -- really 24 a blanket lien in other assets. They're, I think, behind 25 Empery in some senses, but -- with respect to intellectual

1 property. But did have a blanket lien. And it does appear
2 that Prestige is -- for lack of a better word, or expression -- 3 over-advanced. And so there are some receivables they did not 4 factor that are coming in that we do believe they have a lien
5 on. So we have been working with Prestige from that 6 perspective.

7 We also agree that, to the extent Prestige has fees 8 and costs related to its collection of its prepetition -- its 9 prepetition claims, on the prepetition assets, it would be 10 entitled to those in accordance with its loan documents. So 11 there's no dispute there. And Mr. Roldan is right. We've 12 agreed from that perspective; and actually, we've been working 13 together to collect a meaningful amount of AR that has been out 14 in the market now.

15 So we did look at that issue. Thought maybe, Your 16 Honor, there might be a 552, you know, discussion to have 17 there. But we don't think the equities tip in our favor in 18 terms of why Prestige is over-advanced. So we didn't think 19 that was a hill to die on.

20 Also, Your Honor, Prestige, I believe, is working 21 with Empery with factoring for the debtor post-petition. So we 22 will be doing work with Prestige -- it's anticipated we will,
23 anyway. So, ultimately, back to just getting this debtor up 24 and running, and not just litigating to litigate. We didn't 25 think that was the right place to pick a fight.

1 So, with that as a -- those additions, Your Honor,
2 and subject to questions of the Court, I think we are in a ripe
3 place to approve the financing. I think, as the Court can 4 tell, there has been a good deal of negotiations, shuttle 5 diplomacy, up and back, to get to where we are today. And the 6 parties I think -- to the extent they've got issues, they've 7 held their nose and said let's get this done and get moving.
8 And so, subject to Your Honor's questions, I think we're ready 9 to go.

10 THE COURT: So then the chart on 213-1, all of those 11 changes, other than what you've -- to the extent they conflict 12 with what you've just told me -- are all agreed upon by all 13 parties. Nobody's objecting to any of the other terms. The 14 acceptable plan language, which was obviously a large part of 15 the objection, White Winston, all of those are as they are 16 now in this term sheet? I'm looking at Page 13 of 31 on 17 Docket 213-1.

18 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. Yes, they are.
19 As my understanding, either -- you know, White Winston, given 20 the representations on the record, is withdrawing its 21 objection. The Committee is deeming its objection resolved.
22 And I think, Your Honor, what we gave you -- this is the 23 redline that shows from the last term sheet. These are, 24 subject to the statements on the record today, are all approved 25 and agreed upon. And the acceptable plan has been carved back,

1 as well, Your Honor, to be more we think what -- reasonable and 2 what the Court might expect to see. And it's our view that if 3 there's a fight over whether there's a reasonable plan in front
4 of you, and we think there is and Emery thinks there isn't, 5 we'll be here, Your Honor. You'll be deciding whether someone 6 is being reasonable or not.

7 So we don't think that's a material issue,
8 ultimately, because we know how it will get resolved. So, yes, 9 Your Honor, that's right. Our understanding is that the 10 acceptable plan provisions are all (indiscernible).

11 THE COURT: All right. Does anybody else want to be 12 heard on that? Mr. Sternklar.

13 MR. STERNKLAR: Thank you, Your Honor. Jeffrey
14 Sternklar for White Winston. We did object to the acceptable 15 plan language. And every time we objected, they changed it.
16 We were happy to see that.

17 Right now, as we see it, there are really only two 18 significant components remaining in the acceptable plan 19 language that are potentially troublesome, but we think that we 20 can manage them. One is the timing that the debtor must go to 21 a sale in September. But we think September is probably enough 22 time for us to figure out what to do. And if not, frankly, 23 we'll take Emery out or come to the debtor with money to try 24 to take them out.

25 Your Honor, before there is any sale, we obviously

1 want to protect and preserve any ability of this debtor to 2 monetize net operating losses. And we expect between now and 3 September, well before September, we will get our arms around 4 what those net operating losses may be, and how to preserve 5 them -- if they can be preserved in a sale; if so, what 6 structure is necessary -- and come, hopefully, back to the 7 Court with a reasoned analysis and approach of those NOLs, 8 confirm they exist at all.

9 The second thing that is somewhat problematic in the 10 acceptable plan language is the right of Empery to object to 11 non-consensual plan treatment of its prepetition claim. That 12 has been ameliorated to a large extent by the provisions that 13 Mr. Schwartz read into the record earlier. Effectively, if a 14 claim objection is filed -- and I can assure the Court we 15 intend to file one to the entirety of the claim on the three 16 grounds we outlined in our opposition -- essentially nothing 17 happens with respect to the prepetition claim, essentially the 18 status quo is preserved.

19 And so we expect ultimately any plan will comport
20 with whatever the results of that challenge are. And if Empery 21 objects to treatment consistent with that plan -- challenge, we 22 anticipate we'll be before you claiming it's not reasonable and 23 they are limited by reasonableness as to what they can object 24 to.

25 Rather than deal with hypotheticals, which prove to 1 be more than most people can chew at this point, we kick that 2 can down the road and we'll deal with it when a real issue -- 3 if a real issue arises. So long as the status quo is 4 preserved, if there's a claim objection filed, and we 5 understand that is the effect of the provisions that 6 Mr. Schwartz read in the record, we think we can handle that 7 issue, as well.

8 One of our bigger concerns, Your Honor, is with the 9 EBITDA test. As written, we don't understand it, frankly. It 10 says it will be on an accrual basis, but then the budget's 11 prepared on a cash flow basis. I fully expect the debtor and 12 Emery will work that out in real time, and whatever happens 13 will be reasonable and will make sense.

14 And certainly if we find that's not the case, again,
15 we'll try to take Emery out, if we have to. But we'll monitor 16 that closely. I anticipate the Committee will monitor it 17 closely, and make sure that the EBITDA test is something that 18 makes sense, is something that the debtor in good faith 19 believes it can comply with, and not just a reason to, as 20 Mr. Schwartz indicated, switch to a sale quickly in this 21 process before we're ready, because, as we said, we don't want 22 any sale under any circumstances unless and until we know what 23 the NOL situation is.

24 But we're prepared to live with the term sheet, 25 however unclear it is to us. Mr. Schwartz assures us it's not

1 unclear to him. We'll take him at his word, and I'm sure it
2 will be worked out in real time, in a way that makes sense.
3 But I don't want the Court to be under a misimpression that 4 there's any ambiguity or question. We do plan to file that 5 challenge, timely. And if we don't -- can't get an agreement
6 on some slight additional time, we'll probably be back in front
7 of you, on that. But you know, that's coming. We've not -- 8 we've been transparent in our objection as to what we think 9 the grounds are. And we and Emery hopefully will have a full 10 and fair opportunity to litigate the issues. Thank you, 11 Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Mr. Schwartz, is there some sort of notice
14 requirement with the EBITDA decision -- you know, 15 determinations, as it goes along? Are you providing notice or 16 is that called for in your term sheet?

17 MR. SCHWARTZ: No, Your Honor. There wouldn't be 18 notice. It's reporting that would be done within the first 19 week of each following month. It will be -- that timeline, if 20 you will, Your Honor, need to be drilled down on a final basis 21 with respect to the DIP documents. But what we discussed was 22 that, you know, at the end of each month, we just really need a 23 little bit of time to make sure we get all the numbers 24 together. And (indiscernible) split the hair a little between 25 budget and EBITDA tests for the Court, as well. But so, you

1 know, within roughly the first week of the following month, the 2 EBITDA test would be provided to Empery; and then, you know, it 3 would be reviewed by the independent director, who would be 4 making that determination of, you know, is it right and 5 accurate.

6 I mean, so, ultimately, it would flow through from 7 that perspective, Your Honor, the independent director. And it 8 would be the independent director's decision to say -- well, 9 one, to say yes, these are right, we're not making any money;
10 and if not, you know, we need to swing to a sale. That's all 11 (indiscernible) that goes, as well, Your Honor. So there's a 12 check and balance along the route of -- and we'll get to 13 Portage Point, but, you know, I would think that the test would 14 be, you know, the actual report, if you will, will be done by 15 Portage Point.

16 And then that would flow up through the independent 17 director, off to Empery. And if we're showing EBITDA positive, 18 off we go. And if not, then either we have a new negotiation 19 or we're swinging to a sale. And again, that decision of which 20 way to go belongs and rests with the independent director. So 21 I think that there's a check and balance.

22 So -- and then ultimately, there isn't like a filing 23 with the Court, if you will, Your Honor, that's required. It's 24 just -- it's a loan term. And I would submit to Your Honor -- 25 there were some questions about the EBITDA tests. It's 1 something that's -- it's a covenant, if you will, Your Honor.

2 It's something we negotiated as a way to keep, you know, to 3 unlock financing and have some gating and have some controls as 4 we go through the case.

5 I would submit to Your Honor it's not anything that 6 would be uncommon that you would see on a regular loan 7 financing, like a debt service coverage ratio or an inventory, 8 you know, requirement or any kind of a balancing that you might 9 see in terms of how (indiscernible) reported their assets and 10 their profits. And so it's just something that we think, for 11 this particular case, given the position the operations are in, 12 it made a lot of sense to give the parties comfort that they 13 weren't funding into something that wasn't turning around. So 14 it's a turnaround test, if you will.

15 Then, Your Honor, the budget, which the debtor will 16 have to comply with after March 15, is a total overall look at 17 what is the debtor's revenue, expenses, restructuring costs.
18 What do those all look like? So that's one key component. And 19 then, of course, there'll be monthly operating reports, right?
20 But that's not on a cash basis, that the debtor will have to 21 comply with variances. And I know the Court's accustomed to 22 seeing that.

23 The EBITDA test is different. First of all, it 24 excludes many of the things that are in the budget. So 25 it's different. It has an accrual nature to it; and after

1 June 30th, an actual basis. But so they are two different 2 things, really, altogether, and the EBITDA test would have 3 elements that are inside the budget, but they're exclusive. So 4 the debtor could be certainly EBITDA positive under the test,
5 but cash flow negative under the budget, and be in compliance 6 with both.

7 So, in that, Your Honor, they wouldn't -- they don't 8 and shouldn't necessarily conflict, but it certainly would be 9 possible for the debtor to have an exceptional, extraordinary 10 cost that no one saw coming that could be a budget buster, if 11 you will, and we're going to have a different issue that's -- 12 the company may be making money, but oof, look what we just 13 found. So --

14 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Schwartz, what I was getting at 15 is if under these terms -- if, you know, the trigger happens, 16 that the EBITDA is not what was expected, the company isn't 17 making money, and that triggers then the immediate sale, is the 18 first time that all the parties are going to find out about 19 this is on a motion to approve a sale or for procedures -- sale 20 procedures? Is that how -- is that how it would work? Is that 21 how everybody would find out that things are -- have gone south 22 and now the sale trigger has happened?

23 Mr. Garman, do you --

24 MR. SCHWARTZ: Mr. Garman can go first. But 25 Your Honor, we would be talking to the parties and telling them

1 what had happened. I don't -- but there wouldn't be an 2 affirmative requirement to file anything, if you will,
3 Your Honor. But I mean, ultimately, if we had to swing to a 4 sale, that would be a meaningful discussion with the parties 5 about here's what happened, here's the report, here's where 6 are.

7 As Mr. Sternklar said, his client may step in and say
8 they'd like to fund, if there's a problem at that point. So,
9 Your Honor, there'd be, I think, again, ample negotiations 10 before we just ran off in the direction without -- you know, 11 without talking to parties.

12 THE COURT: Thank you.

13 Mr. Garman.

14 MR. GARMAN: Yeah. Your Honor, I think there's a 15 little bit of misunderstanding here. What happened is that the 16 debtor came to us and said we have a budget shortfall based 17 upon the amount of the current DIP. We're going to need more 18 money. And so Empery said, okay, how much money are you going 19 to need to see us through this case? And they came up with, 20 you know, a larger amount. And I think, reasonably, Empery 21 replied with, fine, we will fund you the shortfall, provided 22 you can show us that we're not funding into a black hole.

23 And so, first, this is additional money. This isn't 24 an event of default. So if they don't -- we don't move to a 25 sale in the event that they're not EBITDA positive. What

1 happens is -- you know, in bankruptcy, we tend to deal with 2 things on a cash basis. And meeting a budget on a cash basis
3 can both be good and bad for a debtor. You can have 4 extraordinary expenses that make you lose money in a particular 5 period of time, that make a profitable business look negative 6 because you had to make investment or, you know, something 7 similar.

8 And so what we said was we will provide you
9 additional cash over and above our already existing commitment 10 to see your way through the case, if you can provide us a 11 forecast -- an EBITDA forecast that shows that this business is 12 turning the corner and making money.

13 And so, from my perspective, the defaults that exist
14 are things like compliance with the budget meeting its revenue 15 marks, those sorts of things. And this EBITDA component is 16 additional cash that's a benefit to the debtor. And so I don't 17 think this is a "gotcha" moment. I think this is a benefit to 18 the debtor moment in which we provided something of real value 19 that doesn't have a lot of downside to the debtor over what had 20 been seen by the parties before.

21 And so there's that. And then I have a couple of 22 other points, but I'll pause to see if the Court wants to talk 23 about this further.

24 THE COURT: No. That was helpful, because I did 25 misunderstand that. So (audio interference) for that

1 clarification. But go ahead and make your points.

2 MR. GARMAN: I just want to say Mr. Schwartz
3 summarized the document well. I'll agree with 99.5 percent.
4 But I guess there's just part of me that can't let a few minor 5 errors -- not respond with, you know, the term sheet controls.

6 Mr. Schwartz, I think, inverted a 250,000 and a 7 500,000 here or there in his explanation. What he said -- it's 8 500 the first additional and I think 250 in the months 9 thereafter.

10 I did want to say that I hadn't heard of this 11 Prestige issue until today in open court. None of what I heard 12 gave me a great deal of concern. We have a very good working 13 relationship with Prestige. I'm just going to need to circle
14 back with the debtor and Prestige to make sure I understand 15 what the agreement was before I'd consented to it going in the 16 order. I think it sounded fine. I just don't know what that 17 is.

18 And then I do want to address this 541 issue real 19 quick. We thought we were being elegant in the description of 20 the 541, and apparently we created confusion with it. We draw 21 a distinction between avoidance actions and what's found under 22 property of the estate under 541. And so what we were 23 attempting to do -- and I think there is universal agreement in 24 what we were attempting to do. I just want to clarify it.

25 Mr. Schwartz said, arguably, we would be secured in

1 commercial torts and D&O. I don't think that's arguably. I
2 think that's pretty clear we would be secured in those, subject
3 to the waterfall. And so we carved out avoidance actions, a 4 term I think we as bankruptcy practitioners all know what those 5 mean. And then the other claims that would belong to the 6 estate under 541, we are secured in, that they are subject to 7 the waterfall and it wasn't -- I mean, really, we thought we 8 were being helpful, and it turns out we were creating 9 confusion.

10 And so I think we're all in agreement as to what that 11 means and can sort that out by way of the subsequent documents 12 in the order. But that is what we intended.

13 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Anything else?

14 MR. GARMAN: No, ma'am.

15 THE COURT: Thank you.

16 All right. Is there anybody else before we move back 17 to Mr. Schwartz?

18 (No audible response)

19 MR. SCHWARTZ: Mr. Schwartz, any last comments? I 20 expect that because there is agreement by everyone, you're not 21 anticipating putting any witnesses on, that the declarations 22 will be sufficient.

23 MR. SCHWARTZ: That's correct, Your Honor. Yes.
24 While we were -- I think everyone has ready to put their 25 witnesses on, I think that's right, Your Honor. We would

1 submit that the proposed financing is certainly necessary. I 2 think that the declaration of Mr. Rubin detailing why the 3 debtor went in one direction with Empery versus the other, I
4 think is more than sufficient to satisfy the business judgment
5 test. I don't think there's any dispute that the debtor 6 actually needs the money. There's really no dispute that the 7 budget is the best, you know, budget we have at the moment.
8 Obviously, there'll be another one on March 15th.

9 So, yes, Your Honor, absent questions or other 10 questions from the Court, we would submit that the motion is 11 now ripe for approval.

12 THE COURT: All right.

13 MR. STERNKLAR: Your Honor?

14 THE COURT: Yes. Go ahead, Mr. Sternclar.

15 MR. STERNKLAR: I'm sorry. We had filed evidentiary 16 objections to the declarations which are largely mooted by the 17 sale. But just to -- excuse me -- by the agreement among the 18 parties in the settlement. But if Your Honor is going to allow 19 the declarations to be admitted into evidence, we would not 20 pursue those objections if Your Honor made it clear that the 21 declarations are only -- only binding on us with respect to 22 this motion, and for no other purpose.

23 If there's a risk that the affidavits or the 24 declarations will be admissible evidence in any other 25 proceeding, then, you know, we almost have to go forward with

1 our objection. That was why we filed it. But not that we care
2 to, and not that we think the Court cares to, but -- we think 3 this could be approved with -- by consent, without the need to 4 enter the declarations. And we think that's a better way to 5 go, Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Mr. Garman.

7 MR. GARMAN: Yes, sir.

8 If Mr. Sternklar will agree that that goes both ways, 9 and we equally are not bound by the declarations that were 10 submitted, I would consent to that and -- that makes sense to 11 me.

12 MR. STERNKLAR: Your Honor --

13 THE COURT: So, essentially, a reservation to object 14 in the future --

15 MR. GARMAN: Yes.

16 THE COURT: -- by both parties. All right.

17 Mr. Sternklar.

18 MR. STERNKLAR: Yeah. Your Honor, we would obviously 19 accept Mr. Garman's proposal. We think that makes sense, too.
20 I think I'd characterize it more -- not as a reservation 21 object, but as an agreement that neither party will take the 22 position that what's in their respective declarations is 23 admissible evidence -- or inadmissible evidence, but is nothing 24 with respect to future matters.

25 THE COURT: Well, I have to make findings. If you

1 want me to approve this and not challenge my findings, I've got 2 to at least have the declarations, or you've got to put your 3 clients on the stand. If you want to do that, you can. I'm 4 going to -- we're set up to do it.

5 I mean, I would say to your -- without ruling on it,
6 to give you a preview of where I would think I would go if I 7 were to rule on that today is that -- I understand the 8 objections. And to the extent that, you know, this is not a 9 jury that you're talking to, but the Court, the Court would 10 just give whatever weight was necessary. If there are -- 11 irrelevant, I would disregard them. You know, I mean, that's 12 how I would be looking at this.

13 I suppose, if nobody is going to object to this, I 14 will go ahead and find that for today there's no objections to 15 the declarations, but that does not bind any future proceeding 16 as to whether or not the parties find something objectionable 17 and then I will -- again, I think it's a reservation of your 18 rights to resurrect your objections in the future.

19 MR. STERNKLAR: Very good, Your Honor.

20 THE COURT: I'll make that ruling here. But I 21 obviously need to find -- I need to be able to utilize the 22 declarations in order to make my own findings. So I will do 23 so.

24 All right. Anything else?

25 (No audible response)

1 THE COURT: All right. Well, I believe that the 2 debtor has met its burden of proving that the proposed 3 post-petition financing is an exercise of its reasonable 4 business judgment; that the financing is in the best interest
5 of both the estate and the creditors; the transaction is both 6 necessary to preserve estate assets and necessary and essential 7 for the continued operation of the debtor's business; and that 8 the terms of the proposed transactions are fair and reasonable 9 given the circumstances; and that the proposed facility was 10 negotiated in good faith and at arm's length.

11 All right. Mr. Schwartz, am I missing anything?

12 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. No, I believe 13 we will prepare an order and circulate it to the parties, and 14 try to be thoughtful. I know Mr. Sternklar is traveling.
15 Hopefully, we can get something from him today.

16 THE COURT: All right. I guess I should finish my 17 last thought and actually grant the motion. So, in the absence 18 of an opposition, the Court will grant the requested relief on 19 a final basis.

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Thank you. Let's -- and I am 22 -- again, express my surprise to hear that it was settled. I'm 23 very happy that it was. That made for a much easier hearing 24 today, for sure, and I think it's going to be good for this 25 debtor.

1 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

2 THE COURT: Let's move on to the next --

3 UNIDENTIFIED: Your Honor, I'm sorry to interrupt.

4 Do we know who's signing off on the order?

5 THE COURT: Is there anybody on here that is going to 6 waive their signature?

7 (No audible response)

8 THE COURT: Okay. So the Committee will sign.

9 Mr. Sternklar will sign. Let's see. Who else am I missing
10 here? Mr. Roldan will sign off. Mr. Garman. Let's see. Am I 11 missing somebody?

12 MR. SCHWARTZ: If I may, Your Honor, it may be better
13 -- let me try to do a list here, if I may. Empery will sign 14 off. Mr. Drexler will sign off. The Committee will sign off.
15 White Winston, Prestige, and the U.S. Trustee, and of course 16 the debtor.

17 I believe that's the universe of folks who are on the 18 phone who have opined previously; but if I've missed anyone, 19 then I would ask them to please tell us.

20 (No audible response)

21 THE COURT: All right. I don't hear anybody, so that 22 sounds like you've got it all.

23 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

24 THE COURT: All right. Hold on one second for me. I 25 need to pull up the rest of the docket. So, just moving in the 1 order that's on the docket, the next hearing would be on the 2 cash management, I believe.

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: Yes. Thank you, Your Honor. And 4 Your Honor, I just would like to note, once in front of Judge 5 Riegle, we had a similar surprise, and she said she was 6 pleasantly pleased. So I try to adopt that. So I was also 7 pleasantly pleased that we were able to get to this point 8 today.

9 So, Your Honor, next up is the bank accounts motion.
10 I believe the debtor has -- you know, we've been working with 11 Wells Fargo and our lenders. I don't believe the U.S.
12 Trustee's office has any ongoing, continuing concerns with 13 respect to the motion. So, subject to what Mr. Day may have to 14 say, Your Honor, I believe this motion is also ripe for final 15 approval.

16 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Day, did you want to be 17 heard?

18 MR. DAY: Thank you, Your Honor. Jared Day, 19 Department of Justice, for the U.S. Trustee. Yes, we would 20 agree. The interim order indicates that the debtor will 21 designate its prepetition accounts as debtor-in-possession 22 accounts. Wells Fargo requires a court order to do that. And 23 with that interim order, it's our understanding that the 24 debtors are making progress and on their way to having that 25 completed.

1 And as long as the prepetition accounts are 2 designated as debtor-in-possession, U.S. Trustee has no 3 objection to final order being entered.

4 THE COURT: All right. And I don't see any other
5 opposition on the record. So, in the absence of an opposition
6 and good cause appearing, the Court will grant that motion on a 7 final basis.

8 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

9 THE COURT: All right. And then we have the wages
10 motion. And let's see. I also -- I don't see an opposition 11 there. Mr. Schwartz, did you want to --

12 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I believe we 13 did have some -- a matter to produce for the U.S. Trustee's 14 office, which was completed. I believe we've made the 15 representations on the record of, that, you know, no insiders
16 are being paid for any prepetition debt, which included, 17 actually, Mr. Hillman, who is still technically a consultant.

18 So Your Honor's aware, subject to final approval of 19 the financing today, the debtor's prepared to bind its 20 directors and officers insurance, but we didn't want to do that 21 because a payment would be -- would come due. And if, for some 22 reason, final approval didn't occur, we didn't want to find 23 ourselves in a place where we actually had insurance that we 24 never paid for.

25 So we'll now bind that insurance, I think, given what

1 the Court's ruling was today with respect to financing. But,
2 just by agreement with the Committee, even Mr. Hillman -- 3 although he was not technically the CEO, and still technically 4 is not the CEO yet, we did not pay his prepetition wages. So,
5 with that as a backdrop, Your Honor, I believe we've resolved 6 any concerns the U.S. Trustee's office had, provided a list of 7 employees, titles, salaries, that information.

8 So, again, subject to Mr. Day's comments, I believe, 9 Your Honor, we are also set for final approval here.

10 THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

11 Mr. Day.

12 MR. DAY: Thank you, Your Honor. The U.S. Trustee is 13 satisfied that no 503(c) payments are being made under the 14 prepetition wages and benefits motion. (Audio interference)
15 KERPs, KEIPs, anything like that. We're also satisfied that no 16 (audio interference) and we have been able to review and look 17 at the proposed claims for each of the employees, and we're 18 satisfied that all of the payments would fall under the 19 relevant priority caps. And we have no opposition to entry of 20 a final order.

21 THE COURT: All right. Well, in the absence of any 22 opposition and good cause appearing, the Court will grant the 23 wages motion on a final basis.

24 And that gets us to the employment application for 25 Portage Point Partners. And I know that, Mr. Schwartz, you and

1 Mr. Day were trying to work out issues related to J. Alix
2 Protocol. Has that been resolved?

3 MR. SCHWARTZ: It has, Your Honor. Thank you. The 4 parties -- in connection also (indiscernible) our lenders and 5 working through concerns about the budget -- have agreed that 6 we would withdraw the request that Mr. Gasbarra be seated as 7 the debtor's chief restructuring officer, and simply request
8 that Portage Point be authorized to go forward as the debtor's 9 financial advisor under Section 327.

10 We have worked through already a form of order with 11 Mr. Day's office and Mr. Day. I believe Mr. Agelakopoulos and 12 he agreed on a form just this morning. So not only, Your Honor 13 -- I think we've resolved the CRO issue by just simply 14 withdrawing it. We have an independent director, Your Honor, 15 and we have a lot of pieces here that I think make sense from 16 an operational perspective. Mr. Hillman will now likely take 17 the seat as the CEO.

18 So, getting those things out of the way, and just 19 concerns about the budget, Your Honor, that I think the Court 20 raised even at the last hearing, this was a thoughtful way, we 21 found, to try to find some middle ground. And then, of course, 22 resolved concerns about the J. Alix Protocol and resolved the 23 U.S. Trustee's objections.

24 So, with that, Your Honor, subject to what Mr. Day
25 may say, I don't believe there's any opposition to Portage

1 Point being approved as the debtor's financial advisor. And 2 with that, Your Honor, we would just simply move forward under 3 327, eliminate the issues that would arise under the J. Alix
4 Protocol, and allow us to then go forward with this motion or 5 application.

6 THE COURT: Because it is so different than the 7 initial motion, have all of the other parties -- has the 8 Committee been made aware of this agreement and so on, in terms 9 of an opportunity to oppose it if they wanted to?

10 Mr. Fiero, do you want to speak to that?

11 MR. FIERO: There we go. Your Honor, we're up to 12 speed, and we're okay with what Mr. Schwartz has worked out.

14 heard?

15 Mr. Day, did you want to be heard?

16 MR. DAY: Thank you, Your Honor. Just briefly. That 17 was our concern, as well, Your Honor. There is a pending
18 application that was filed on -- I believe a full 28 days' 19 notice. And the U.S. Trustee opposed it in writing timely.
20 But with the revision to the application, we think that it --
21 the current application on file does request that Portage Point 22 be authorized to be employed as the financial advisor. So we 23 think notice is satisfactory. I think any party that had an 24 issue with that could have spoken up 14 days prior to the 25 preliminary hearing.

1 And there will be a few provisions that we've 2 requested in the proposed order. If I can just go through them
3 really quickly. It will indicate that Mr. Gasbarra's
4 application to be employed as CRO is withdrawn; that Portage
5 Point's application to be employed as a restructuring -- I 6 believe they've termed it "advisor" or "consultant," will be 7 withdrawn; and Portage Point will then just proceed forward 8 with an application to employ -- to be employed as financial 9 advisor. And again, I think that's already set forth in the 10 current application.

11 And then we have a provision indicating that there
12 will be no preapproval of any terms and conditions of Portage
13 Point's employment under Section 228(a); in other words, no 14 finding at the retention stage that the hourly rates or fee
15 structure is reasonable or appropriate. And debtor has agreed 16 to that.

17 And then the last provision is just a carveout for 18 indemnification for Portage Point, as to any acts of gross 19 negligence or willful misconduct. And that provision will be 20 in the proposed order, as well.

21 But with those four provisions and the withdrawal of 22 the request for a CRO and/or restructuring advisor, the U.S.
23 Trustee is fine with entry of the order that Mr. Schwartz has 24 described.

25 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Schwartz, I did notice in

1 the agreement -- the employment agreement, there was reference
2 to investment banking services. And I take it that's not -- 3 it's solely financial advising.

4 MR. SCHWARTZ: Portage Point is being approved as the 5 financial advisor today, Your Honor. I think the parties 6 reserved their rights with respect to investment banking, and 7 that -- what we would ask the Court to do -- thank you for 8 raising that, Your Honor. I apologize. I forgot to mention 9 that.

10 In the event that the company does move to a sale, 11 and in the event the debtor elected to use Portage Point for 12 those services, for investment banking, then we would provide a 13 notice that Portage Point was being asked to do that work and 14 allow parties a further opportunity to object, in the event
15 there's concerns. Because if we swing to a sale, Your Honor, 16 we'll need some sort of a banker, we expect, to do the work.

17 So that was the anticipation. We have their 18 contract, we have their agreement. It's one of the reasons 19 Portage Point was chosen at the outset of the case, was because 20 we made need to run a sale, and we thought best to just not 21 have to change horses at that point in time. But so the 22 anticipation was we would just do a notice if need be, and 23 tackle that issue, if we don't select someone else to do the 24 work.

25 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Anybody else want to 1 be heard?

2 (No audible response)

3 THE COURT: In the absence of an opposition and in 4 conjunction with the terms that were just stated on the record
5 by the U.S. Trustee, with those terms included in any order, 6 the Court will grant the application to employ Portage Point 7 Partners as a financial advisor. All right.

8 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor. I believe 9 we've resolved the order of Mr. Day. Does any other party wish 10 to see the order?

11 THE COURT: It's fine with just getting Mr. Day's 12 signature. There's no other objection being lodged.

13 All right, then. Well, I think we've covered 14 everything. Does anybody have anything else that we need to go 15 over?

17 THE COURT: All right. Then we'll go ahead and 18 conclude these hearings.

20 MR. SCHWARTZ: Thank you, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: All right. Ms. Rawling, we can go off 22 record.
